“ Kevin was a true gentleman. Always concerned about everyone but himself. He loved his family. He will be sorely missed by all that knew him personally and professionally!

“ Kevin came to work at Mainline in 2009 and was a very dedicated team member. He brought with him a wonderful following of loyal customers who are as distraught as his family, co-workers and friends are that he is gone to soon. He never complained and answered as many calls from customers as he could. He just kept doing it and lived to do it! He could tell you the account numbers of everyone of his customers without batting an eye and this through 2 different billing systems! He kept on top of the inventory we would run out of and reorder it so we would have it available to our customers. To say I counted on Kevin would be an understatement, many of us did and we will ALL miss him dearly. Looking down at his end of our counter will never be the same. Rest in Peace Kevin, job well done!
