

Kevin Oneil West

June 19, 1964 - April 19, 2020

Kevin Oneil West, was born on June 19, 1964 to Gary and Joyce West.

Kevin was in the first graduating class at Callaway Elementary School. He was well known in the neighborhood. He always knew just what to say to get what he wanted. He was full of charisma and had a way with people. Everyone knew who “Yummy” was (as he was affectionately called). Kevin graduated from Forest Park Senior High in 1982.

That same year he would not only join the United States Navy, but become the proud father of his first born, Valerie West. Kevin spent four years in the U.S. Navy where he pursued a career as a pharmacist.

In 1985, Kevin married his high school sweetheart, Chante Jones. In 1993 they welcomed their son, Kevin West Jr. Kevin was so proud to have a junior. In 1987, Kevin welcomed a new arrival, his daughter, Alecia West.

Kevin spent his career as fork lift driver. In 1999, Kevin would relocate to Philadelphia where he met Nussy who became a constant friend and source of support. While in Philadelphia, Kevin met Tameka Upshaw and they wed in 2008. In 2013, they welcomed their son, Kendill West.

Kevin returned to Baltimore in 2018 where he resided until his untimely death.

Kevin leaves to mourn his mother, Joyce West; his sons, Kevin O. West Jr. and Kendill O. West; his daughters, Valerie M. West and Alecia M. West; his sister, Monique West; his nephew, Adrian Inniss; and host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

“ My kids can't home today and one of 4 yr old twins looked over and started sniffing and said I'm going to miss Mr Kevin. He was a great guy . I have been a neighbor and known him all my life . It's not the same looking over there and not getting greeted by him when either I'm leaving out or coming in... or for him to offer a helping hand . Rip Kevin . You are truly missed
