

Kevon Eugene Morrison

August 8, 1990 - February 24, 2026

Kevon Eugene Morrison was born on August 8, 1990, in Richmond to Christian E. Pleasants and Renee' Morrison. He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Naomi Morrison; his grandfather, Alvin Pleasants; and his aunt, Bessie Mae Spearman.

Kevon received his formal education at Flatwoods Job Corps Forest Service Center with the Department of Agriculture, where he gained valuable training and skills that prepared him for his career path.

At an early age, Kevon accepted Christ as his Savior. His faith was strong and remained a steady source of comfort and guidance throughout his life, sustaining him during many seasons and situations.

On July 15, 2015, Kevon was united in holy matrimony to the love of his life, Jadaya Starks, in Richmond, Virginia. Their union was built on love, devotion, and friendship. He was employed for a period of time with Woodfin Oil as an HVAC Technician, where he applied his skills with dedication and pride.

In his leisure time, Kevon cherished being surrounded by family and friends. He was the kind of person anyone could turn to when they needed someone to listen. Loving, kind, and warm-hearted, Kevon had a way of keeping a smile on the faces of those around him. His presence brought comfort, laughter, and light.

Kevon was called to eternal rest on February 24, 2026. He leaves to cherish his precious memories: his caring wife, Jada Starks; loving mother, Renee Morrison; father, Christian Pleasants; brother, Malcolm Mitchell; sisters, Tynisha Mitchell and Shamise Chambliss; uncles, Brian Pleasants and Daryle James; aunts, Mary Jackson and Cora Harris; grandmother, Rose Pleasant; mother-in-law, Sonya Richardson; father-in-law, George Jeter; sister-in-law, Shaniqua Starks; and a host of nieces, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends; and a devoted family friend, Delores Hunt.

Kevon's life, though brief, was filled with love, faith, and meaningful connections. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
