

Keyomri O. Scott-Wright

January 18, 1991 - August 20, 2023

On January 18, 1991 KEYOMRI OMAR SCOTT was born to Kimberly and James Scott in Perry Hospital.

While living in Perry, GA (Oldfield) he received education from Perry Primary, Perry Middle School and Perry High School. After high school he went on to attend Devry College in Atlanta, GA where he gained credits.

Key loved his best friends of Perry very much, Cashala Huntley, Ashley Wright, and Kesean French; they were all inseparable.

In 2010 he would become the proud father of Keymarian J. Scott (KJ) with then girlfriend Kendra Walker.

After taking a break from Devry College he gained his love for being a server at Cracker Barrel where he touched the lives of many at the Warner Robins location. He later moved to Maryland in 2017 where he furthered his career with Cracker Barrel as he became the Employee Training Coordinator at the Linthicum Heights restaurant where he yet again touched more people with his smile and southern accent.

In September of 2018 he found his soulmate De'Tral Wright. During this time he would be employed by the USPS. In September of 2021 he would wed the love of his life De'Tral Wright.

After wanting to follow his passion to help and heal people he returned to educate himself at Cortiva Institute where he became a massage therapist and later worked for Massage Envy of Columbia.

On Sunday August 20, 2023 Key took his smile and entered into eternal resting.

He is preceded in death by his father James Scott (dec. 2016). He leaves behind: his spouse, De'Tral Wright; son, KJ Scott; bonus daughter, Chemiah Parker-Wright; mother, Kimberly Scott; brother, Shykeem (Juice) Scott; three aunts, Pamela Roberts, Gabriel Carr and Angie Durham; three uncles, Matthew Carr, Nicholas Durham and Ambay Durham; godsister Chantel (Girl) Johnson; three sisters-in-law, Lorraine Lewis, Jadah Wright and Akilah Wright; brother-in-law, Kamari Torres; two nephews, Shykeem (phat baby) Scott Jr. and Jaden Scott; three nieces, Desiree Lewis, Kaylen Davenport and Judiah Wright; four godchildren, Lennox Huntley, Kingston Wright, Kinslee Wright and Cree Paye; his Perry family, cousins, best friends named, The Wright Family, and a host of other friends that loved him.

“ Words cannot express the sorrow and pain that I feel. When I received news of my cousin's death, my heart was broken. A few days ago, I looked at Keyomri's phone number in my cellphone, and my eyes filled with tears and my heart was moved with compassion.

Keyomri's death is difficult to process. In May 2018, after my grandmother, Keyomri's great-grandmother, Mrs. Cora Lee Durham passed away, Keyomri and I had a "heart-to-heart" conversation that I will never forget.

Keyomri loved his family: the Durham family and the Scott family. Keyomri is loved and will be missed by his great-Aunts of Perry, GA; his great-Uncles of Perry, GA; Unadilla, GA; and Binghamton, NY. It's no secret in the Durham family, that Keyomri is greatly cherished and loved by his great Aunt (my mother), Margaret Jackson of Perry, GA. His great-Aunt Margaret watched him grow from an infant to a child, from a child to a teen, and a teen to an adult.

Keyomri is loved and will be missed by his cousins. And "Oh my", there are so many of us cousins in the Durham family! Keyomri is gone, but not forgotten. Yes, there is no sorrow that God cannot comfort and heal, but for now, Keyomri's passing is hard.

“ When I saw you a couple of months ago, we didn't take any pics. Now im like what the heck. I enjoyed the short time I knew you nephew. You were always in good spirits, kind, loving, and attentive. I pray that God comforts your mother, your son, and, your partner.

“ You were there for me in so many pivotal moments of my life. Juice juice use to chase me around the house and bite me and you would try and save me. We would climb up to the roof at Taco Bell & just talk and talk. All the times we cut up in the Taco Bell drive thru. You would cover for me when I would sneak out to go and see Dusty. We'd ride around in good ol' Thelma and go shopping at Walmart (because let's face it we didn't have much to do in Perry). I'm so happy to know that you were happy and loving your life in Maryland. I'll always keep you in my heart. Life will not be as bright without you in it. This is so unfair and heartbreaking. We love you so much Keyomri. Until next time 💔
