

Khalil Adolemaiu- Bey

April 21, 1980 - December 11, 2012

KHALIL TYREK JABBAR ADOLEMAIU-BEY, son of Khalil and Darlene Adolemaiu-Bey, was born April 21, 1980 in Baltimore, Maryland. Khalil suddenly departed this life while playing basketball on December 11, 2012, doing something he loved, especially with Keion and Bryant.

Khalil was educated in Baltimore, Maryland. He started his career path being a private contractor at Comcast; then worked at Dish Network for at least 5 years, where he became a supervisor; before being employed by Honeywell as a supervisor under a BGE contract. When the BGE contract ended he was employed by Grid One as a supervisor which was his final job. He was always a loyal and dependable employee.

He really enjoyed the special time he spent with his closest friends or family, like hanging out with Zack, Dre (Andre), Christopher, Rocca, Khalilah, Garcia, Derek, John, Pinky, Jimmy and Veronica. He was affectionately known as the (gentle giant). However, there are many other names that could be added to this list but it would be too long to mention, so please forgive us.

Khalil was a warm and kind-hearted person who was always willing to lend a helping hand, regardless of the task. All of the children of the family depended on him to take care of them. He would make time for them no matter what he had to do. Khalil was a perfect role model. He dearly loved his family. He always had a positive outlook on life, even when things were not in his favor. Khalil had a great spirit and he was our angel.

He leaves to mourn: the loves of his life, his wife, Toneka; and his son, Keion; mother, Darlene Adolemaiu-Bey; father, Khalil Adolemaiu-Bey; brothers, Charles Darin Johnson, Richard Queen (Instant); sisters, Charlene Weisbrod, Shwanda Rondon, Khalilah Imperatrice, Renee' Jenkins, Sharen Robinson, Adrienne Alexander; mother-in-law, Pinky J. Hillmon; father-in-law, John Hillmon; sisters-in-law, Tyneshia Miller, Lisa Johnson; brothers-in-law, Rocco Imperatrice, Robert Weisbrod, Tommie Lee Jenkins Jr., Robert Hope; aunts, Violette Nixon, Aakhu Maa' aka (Valorie Carter), Paula Baker, Delores Lea, Rowena Johnson, Diane Moore, Karen Nixon, Lynn Nixon; uncles, Johnny Nixon, David Harper, Leslie Nixon, Jamie Nixon, Carroll Harper, Carlos Nixon, Lonnie Nixon; great-aunts, Genevieve Moore, Shirley Bethune and Bertha Nixon; nieces, Mariah, Raynah, Mikalah, Adrienne, Romaine and Rachel; nephews, Jaquan, Ryan, Bryant, Noah, Charles (Tre), Dorian, Christopher, Tommie, Charles, Rocco, Steve and Donato; cousins, Christopher Carter, John Hammond, Tamara Harper, Bonita Lea, Daniella Lea, Monet' Lea, Darius Baker, Latoya Brown, Tasha Brown, Darius Baker, Marian Harper, Michelle Harper and Joseph (Joey) Harper; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I was wiping my desk & accidentally sprayed cleaner on Khalil. He jumped out of his seat, yelled & chased me around the classroom. Our teacher told us to settle down & return to our seats. I refused because I was unsure of my fate. Khalil laughed & told me he was just having some fun & from that day forward he was 1 of my closest friends...that was 22 years ago. Life pulled us in different directions but I cherish all the great memories & good times I shared with him. Today he was laid to rest. Knowing that he's gone, physically, is a hard pill to swallow but knowing that he lived the life he wanted to live, seeing the people he loved & those that loved him, & best of all being on the receiving-end of his goodness makes it very hard to be sad...he practiced & lived in peace so I know he's surely resting in it.

“ In my early scholastic years, my home life was rather difficult. Coming into Old #66 was often a refuge from that harsh reality. There were several characters that made those moments of solace a lot easier. Khalil was one of those bright spots. Whether it was with a joke, smile or game we played, he was always pleasant to be around. I know that I still chuckle at some of his animated gestures. It was an honor to know such a man. My prayers go out to his family and loved ones. And I thank God for his presence in our lives.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

NO

I only met Khalil the evening of his passing. I watched him on the court and noticed that he was very friendly, and played with a smile. I do remember thinking to myself that he seemed like a great guy that was really enjoying himself. God Speed Khalil
