

Khyree A. Woods

January 8, 2016 - May 28, 2018

Khy'ree Alexander Woods was boen January 08th, 2016 to Sharieea Williams and Nathaniel Woods IV in Baltimore, Maryland. He entered into eternal rest Tuesday May 29th, 2018.

Khy'ree aka Khy (Chubbs) was an energetic happy 2 year old, who loved sports, his incredible Paw Patrol and Dirt Bikes. Most days Khy'Ree spent time at home bonding with his little brother and bonus brother Kamari and Jaylin and bonus dad Edward Smith. Chubbs as he was affectionately named, Loved to Facetime with Mama Rhonda every morning and with Grandma Muffin before his weekend visits. His infectious, smile drew everyone he encountered, Chubbs was loved and spoiled by his grandmothers like every grandchild should be.

Khy'ree was just 2 but so intelligent for his age. During weekend visits with grandma Muffin he would get up in the mornings and turn on the television and DVD to warch his favorite cartoons. In addition to Paw Patrol he also loved spiderman! He always wanted his daddy to take him to the store and watch the dirt bike videos with him. His favorite video was "The 12 O'Clock Dirt Bike Boys". If he wasn't playing with his uncle Tank he also enjoyed playing with his cousin Damiyah.

Khy'ree will be greatly missed and leaves to cherish his memories: mother

“ To Nate, Lil Nate, & family,

My heart is so heavy with tears and sorrow for the loss you are enduring. Nate I know how much you loved your grandson, it really showed in the ways that you interacted with him. Words can not heal your broken heart but know that my thoughts and prayers are with you.

Love Always, Cousin Donna T.
