

Kim J. Nickens

November 26, 1955 - December 12, 2002

Kim Nickens, daughter of Ida B. and the late James D. Hamlette was born on November 26, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on December 12, 2002. She received her education at Northern High School in Baltimore, Maryland and attended Morgan State University. At the age of nineteen, she became employed by Social Security Administration at Woodlawn, Maryland as a disability claims clerk. On December 21, 1984 she married Charles E. Nickens, Sr. and out of this union three children were born: Brandon, Christopher and Darius. Kim made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a devoted wife, mother, sister, and her life-long friend, Yvonne. She also adored her three stepchildren, Carol, Terry and Charles Jr.; two nieces, Janine and Melissa; a nephew, Berkley; and six grandchildren. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Charles; her mother, Ida; three sons, two loving sisters, Edwina and Joanie; two adoring brothers, James and Dewayne; two sisters-in-law, May and Deborah; one brother-in-law, Brice; three stepchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends also survive her.

“ TO THE FAMILY OF KIM NICKENS, MAY THE PEACE OF GOD BE WITH YOU WHEREVER YOU GO. AND MAY GOD'S STRENGTH SUSTAIN YOU IN YOUR TIME OF SORROW. I WILL MISS KIM VERY MUCH AS A CO-WORKER, AND AS A FRIEND, WITH HER QUIET MANNER AND BEAUTIFUL SMILE. I ALWAYS ADMIRERD KIM FOR HOW DEDICATED SHE WAS TO HER BOYS, AND HOW SHE BONDED WITH THEM. TO THE BOYS, HOLD FAST TO THE MEMORY OF YOUR DEAR MOTHER, CHERISH ALL THE GOOD TIMES YOU HAD TOGETHER, KEEP LOVING WHO SHE WAS AND WHAT SHE MEANT TO YOU, AND KNOW SHE'S WITH JESUS SMILING DOWN ON YOU. YOU LOVED HER BUT GOD LOVED HER BEST. GOD BLESS YOU.##imported-begin##ALVERTA WINDLEY##imported-end##

“ I was sorry to hear of the loss of your love one kim, and someone I've known over 15yrs at ssa. Kim was very quiet but always had a smile. She will be missed by many at ssa. My prayer is that you remember all the good times and cherish the years that God aloud you to be together. God is your strength and a present help in the time of trouble. Let Jesus Christ take full reign in your life and I know you will make it through the days to come. God bless you, the boys and family members.##imported-begin##connie e. wood##imported-end##

“ I lost my Father when I was young. To a small degree, I understand how Brandon, Christopher, and Darius feel. All that I can offer is my sympathy and my loyal support to the 3 boys in whatever they may need.##imported-begin##Jay Robinson##imported-end##

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
