

Kim Johnson Richards

December 5, 1961 - August 1, 2024

KIM JOHNSON RICHARDS was born in Baltimore, Maryland, on December 5, 1961, the baby of ten children born to the late Pierce Holley and Marie Mickey Johnson. On August 1, our beloved Kim entered into eternal peace and rest at the age of 61.

She was raised in the Eastside, Johns Hopkins community in a village of love. She accepted the Lord Jesus at a young age. She attended Baltimore City Public Schools. She worked for many years for Giant Foods in the bakery. She loved her boys. When Jazmon was a teen, he loved hanging out with his mom; he just loved being around her. Jason and Jazz would ride around town with their mom, listening to some of the craziest songs.

She met her loving husband, John Richards, and they got married in Baltimore. Then they moved to Texas and remarried again. They had been together for over 28 years. They resided in Texas for the past 12 years. Kim, being the baby as most babies in families are, got away with everything and let you know she was the baby. She adored her grandchildren.

She was always stylish, a true fashionista. A brown-eyed beauty. She sold her fashions on Posh mark and did very well indeed. She was the life of the party and very charming. Kim was full of energy and unexpected drama that she could switch on and off instantaneously. You never knew what mood you would get; you just had to wait and see.

Kim was loved; she was a special, unique person in so many ways. Kim lived her life her way. We wish we had more time together, and we will always value the time we did have. We love you, Kim, and thank you for blessing us with your presence. We have captured the memories of you forever. There are no goodbyes for us, till we meet again; you will always be in our hearts. For love itself lives on, and cherished memories never fade just because you are gone. Our love can never be more than just a thought apart, and we will always treasure our memories and will never forget. Her presence will be deeply missed by her husband, her sons, family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing her. Among those who shared her life and preceded her in death were her father, Pierce Holley, and siblings Linda, Lawrence, Joanne, Alice, Gregory, Michael, and Glenndora.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her dear, loving mother, Marie Johnson; devoted husband, John Richards; loving sons, Jazmon Johnson (Leticia), and Jason Johnson; stepson, Jonathan Richards (Arial); three grandchildren, Jaso'nique, Damiano, Ruby; sister, Leona Tucker; brother, Coleman Holley; brother-in-law, William Richards (Edna); aunt, Terry Brooks; best friend, Clarice Miller; nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My first love. Words cannot describe the pain that I'm feeling right now. You'll always live through Jason and I. I don't think I've ever loved someone as much I loved you. Thank you for everything, you did the best you could for us and I am a better person because of your sacrifices. You ran your race. Go ahead and rest now mom, Jason and I are ok and we got it from here. This is a goodbye but rather a see you later. Love you forever.

“ Ms. Marie, Leona and Cobyand the rest of the family. When I met Kim many years ago I was struck by her smile ; her brilliant smile and her laughter. Leona reminded me that is "my baby sister, I love her dearly." We were in my car in front their home on Castle st. It was very brief encounter and I may have only seen her once or twice since. But I knew they were siblings who loved and cared for each other. She shared her plans about what she was planning to wear to a party. She loved her fashion. She had much confidence that you was going to be fabulous in her outfit. Leona's response "don't hurt them ..(implying Kim admirers). We all laughed some more. Fashion was her passion. Death of a love one isn't easy. Our Christian faith is our strength as we know Kim is present with the Lord. My sincere heart felt condolences to all of you. You all have and will continue to be in my prayers. Peace and love to you all.
