“ Please accept my sympathy. The Bible assures us that the time will come when “death will be no more,”—Revelation 21:4. We can confidently look to the future when Jehovah God, the Giver of life, will bury death forever. Fondly, Ashley##imported-begin##Ashley Adams##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere and heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. The death of a loved one is truly heartbreaking, and it is something that we never get used to. Sometimes we wonder, will I ever really see my loved one again? The bible answers yes! God has promised a resurrection from the dead, a promise we can surely count on, because it is the promise from the living God, Jehovah of whom the bible says cannot lie. Titus 1:2. While Jesus was here on the earth he raised up many people from death including his friend Lazarus, and a 12-year old little girl. Mark 5:38-43. he showed us on a small scale what he will soon do when he resurrects billions back from the dead. John 5:28,29 tells us: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May that hope be an anchor for your souls, and help you to endure until that glorious event takes place, and may God bless you and comfort you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
