“ Jesse and Marie, My heart and prayers go out to you and the whole family. (Jessica, Jimmy, Terry and Miss Sally). My mother just informed me of the devastating news. I always think of Kim whenever hear a song by Smokey Robinson and the Miracles, I second that emotion. I think of her because when we were kids, I was at your house on Crown St. Kim was brushing her baby doll' hair and the song was on the radio. When this part of the song came on: "I second that emotion", Kim edited and sang her version: :Just give the doll some lotion". This was one of the sweetest things I have encountered. I never forgot that and I never will. May God comfort you during these trying times. I will continue to pray for the whole family, espicially Jessica. I will also lift up your family during prayer request at Wednesday service. Love Always, Marc Brooks###imported-begin###Marc Brooks###imported-end##

“ I lived next door to Kim with my aunt until recently. Kim was one of those people who just make you want to smile. She was positive in every way and that could be seen in her demeanor. She was always pleasant and friendly. Kim would be in her front yard planting flowers and she just seemed to treasure life. I will miss not seeing her gardening. I offer my deepest condolences to the family that brought a breath of sunshine in Kim to this earth. She will be missed.###imported-begin##Tushombe Stokes###imported-end##
