“ To the family, I offer my heartfelt condolences. One day, the bible promises, you will have an opportunity to see your loved one again. I know your're hurting now, because death is so very painful. But remember that Kim will live again. John 5:28,29 says, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes family, all dead persons in God's memory will be raised back to life in peaceful conditions. Imagine being able to see the dear face of Kim again, and to hold her tight in your arms agin. Hold on to these wonderful promises of God, because he never fails to fulfill his promises. Isaiah 55;11. May you be comforted.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4 ) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible lovingly tells us that "there is going to be a resurrection."- Acts 24:15 That means returning to life with the prospect of no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:3-5, Isaiah 65:17) May you receive much comfort and strength when you think about these loving promises found in the Holy Bible.###imported-begin###Sharon Hill###imported-end###
