

Kim Belinda Tillman

October 18, 1962 - December 2, 2014

Kim BELINDA TILLMAN, daughter of the amazing late Rosalie and Clayton Windell Tillman, was born on October 18, 1962, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Tuesday, December 2, 2014, after battling an illness. She received her education at Fredrick Douglass High School in Baltimore City and she also attended Sojourner-Douglass & Baltimore City Community College. She also received a Nursing Assistant Certificate in December of 2001. Kim was a great beautician she could create styles and make you over in such a stunning way. She also had a high-quality way of expressing her love to people with disabilities. She became employed by Emerge Inc. full time as a manager, where she had been over eighteen years. She loved her job very much and took pride in her work. She embraced every challenge professionally and tactfully which many appreciated, respected, and especially for her honesty. She had a special interest in exploring the world. She has been to Hawaii, Disney World, several cruises and islands enjoying Jehovah's creation. Her hobby of exploring the road led to her graduation in May of 2006, from North American Trade School and obtained her Commercial Truck Driving Diploma & CDLs license. Yet due to her mother's lengthy illness she decided to become her primary care giver and gained part-time employment at Woodlawn Motor Coach and Howard County Public Schools where she took enjoyment in transporting all school-aged students. Another relaxation of Kim's she had a green-thumb, she surrounded herself with home-gardening plants and landscaping she treated and they would grow so nicely. Kim made fun, loving and caring awesome friends along her journey that she had many spa, mini-vacations, ministry and lunch dates with, where bonds and wholesome friendships grew that would last forever such as (the late Mr. Donny and Ms. Iceland), and this includes her 19+ years clean with affiliations from NA and those encouraging meetings and friends. Her utmost life achievement was in September 2012, she became baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses as a faithful servant. She was at peace when speaking about Jehovah and his promises that she was able to aid Myeisha into the truth and witnessed her baptism. Kim received contentment from the outdoors she would exercise around the local parks in Maryland; she really liked Centennial Olympic Park in Howard County. She even engaged her grandchildren in her workouts such as bike riding and tennis. Kim's favorite sayings were "I know that's right" with pretty big smile and laugh when she agreed with you OR her other saying she say if you spoke in a sincere way, 'Tuma Tuma', She would smile so sweet that was her special way of saying 'Aww"! All we can say now that Jehovah and Kim were good friends, the safest place to be in where she is and that's in his memory. She will be admired for her steadfastness for the truth with her acts of faith. She leaves to mourn: her father Windell Tillman, three sisters Jackie Kelly, Chandola and Sandra Tillman, four adult children Allen Graham, Zakiya Carter, Janette and Rosario Gonzalez and with 17 grandchildren (Allen [r., Noah, [aden, Daytron, James, Nilyah, Chenterian, Jada, Natasja, Shakeria, Jay, Jayquan, Kobe, Taequan, Yasmine, Nazaria and new addition Promize), host of nieces, cousins, nephews, aunts, uncles and friends and other love ones. She will be truly missed. Also gone but not forgotten and truly missed, her brother Windell Jr. aka Meme, Daniel, Tony, her son Mohammed Windell, and nephew Aaron aka Ernie.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathies. May you find comfort in the Holy Scriptures, your family and friends. May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together as you celebrate life well lived.

I can understand how you feel, grief can affect us in various ways, but for many the overriding feeling is one of intense emotional pain. The good news is that recovery is possible. It will take some time but the comfort from the Holy Bible can help you to endure. Just as a severe physical wound takes time to heal, so it is with bereavement. Recovering from grief may take months, a few years, or even longer. Just remember the acute pain you feel in the beginning will lessen in time and life will gradually seem less bleak and meaningless. There is an empty space where before there was a living human. Cry as long as you need to, repressing your grief can be harmful mentally, emotionally, and physically. Like a suffocating envelopment - a blanket - death can weigh heavily on mankind. God assures us that death will be swallowed up or removed from the earth. Because of the resurrection hope, Martha could say to Jesus concerning her dead brother Lazarus, "...I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said in John 11:25 "I am the resurrection and the life.

The Holy Bible contains many example of faithful men and woman who openly expressed their grief by weeping. Jesus Christ "gave way to tears" when he neared the tomb of his dear friend Lazarus, who had recently died. (John 11:33, 35) God word assures us at Psalms 55:22 "Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to fall." 2Thessalonians 2:17 "comfort your hearts and make you firm in every good deed and word."

One thing that can help you cope with your grief is to draw close to God and the resurrection hope. (James 4:8 first part) May Jehovah God give the family comfort and peace.

“ So sorry about Cousin Kim. We know she made an excellent name with Jehovah God and she was such an inspiration! Our encouragement is to take it a day at a time and pray to Jehovah to get you through. He will help you. Find comfort in the Bible, it's a letter from our loving Heavenly Father, Jehovah. As Romans 15:4 reveals the Bible can give us "instruction, endurance, comfort and hope." Much Love Cousins Joe and Sharon

“ I had the privilege of visiting her on the Thursday before she passed. She was so funny. She had a way of expressing herself that had me in stitches. I remember a bus trip we took to Georgia when aunt Betty passed away. The bus was full of Tillman's/Skinner's and I had assumed that most of us went to the kingdom hall. At the time Kim wasn't yet attending the meetings. She yelled to the back of the bus and asked if anybody had something she could read. Not knowing she was thinking of maybe an "ebony" or "jet" magazine, i said I do and passed up the latest watchtower. She thought that was so funny and said "i know that's right". But she read the entire magazine anyway although that wasn't her request. I always smile about that when I think back on it.

“ To the Tillman family and friends. Kim was a amazing and loving person. She cared for my brother Wayne Brooks for years. She was excellent with him. I loved that she brought him and his girlfriend Margret to my wedding in Lancaster with her grandson. Enjoyed talking to her on the phone and her outings with Wayne. You will be greatly missed. We loved you

“ To the Tillman family & friends May Jehovah be a God of all comfort in the loss of your dear love one. The scriptures provides comfort Isaiah 25:8 He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces, The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth. For Jehovah himself has spoken it.
