“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ I sit here wanting to write something and I am at a loss of words. Maybe due to the fact that it is hard for me to believe that my long time friend and sister is gone. Kim Bolden's best description of her being is a little woman with a big heart. If there was anything that you needed she would go out of her way to get it done. She loved her children, grandchildren, and children that weren't even hers and cared for all of them equally. If any of her family needed her there was nothing that was gonna stop her from being there for them even if she had to walk on her own two feet to get there she would be there. The message I want to convey to all of her children is that you are her life and always have been. She was taken away from us far too soon for us, and even though we miss her, She had a higher calling. God had already prepared a place for her and he has called her home, and said to her Well Done Good And Faithful Servant ! God has given her wings to continue to be the angel that she existed to be in life, to be by his side in heaven. She is still with us all in spirit and will always be watching over us all.

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

BR

There is so little one can say at a time like this, but may time accomplish what no words can do and that is give you peace. Remember that your loss is shared by those who care and understand. My family has wonderful memories of Kim and we will cherish those. We send love and prayers. Barbara Raither
