

Kimberly T. Adamson

April 11, 1961 - May 12, 2006

On April 11th, 1961, God sent one of His angels, KIMBERLY THERESA ADAMSON, to Frank (deceased) and Mildred Adamson, to share His divine love with the world. When Kimberly's work was completed, God called her home. Kim was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Southwestern High School in 1979. She proudly served her country in the United States Air Force and was honorably discharged in 1981. After military service, she attended Essex Community College and studied Communications to continue her training in Electronic Communication. She began her career with the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company as the first female Cable Splicer in Maryland. After 15 years of dedicated service, she decided to follow her entrepreneurial spirit and became self-employed. She eventually purchased her own taxi cab which not only allowed her to experience a sense of freedom and financial independence but also gave her an opportunity to minister to others and to evangelize the Gospel of Jesus Christ; she often stated that this was the best "job" that she ever had. Kim was baptized early in life and rededicated her life to Christ in 1999. She found her church home and became a member of New Shiloh Baptist Church. Kim was a sports enthusiast who enjoyed basketball and football. She liked camping, swimming, and world travel, and she had an exquisite taste for the finer things in life. She loved children and was well known by her nieces and nephews as "Antie Kim". Although she didn't have any children of her own, she was a mother to many. Kim loved to engage in theological, political, and philosophical debate. She had a passion for learning, as evidenced by her voluminous library of educational books, tapes, and CDs. Kim was dedicated to her family, especially her mother. Kim leaves to cherish her memory: her loving mother, Mildred; five brothers, Frank, Jr. (South Carolina), Leonard, Jerome, Barry, and Duncan (deceased); six sisters, Glendell, Daiselle, Dorothy, Deirdre, Terry, and Cathy; sister-in-law, Lynn; three brothers-in-law, Bobby, Deloga and Joseph; seven aunts, Louise, Rosa Lee, Viola, Daisy, Rachel, Ethel, and Nancy; two uncles, Herman and Richard; two god-children, Antione and Kimberly; other relatives and friends.

“ To the Family of Kimberly Adamson: Even with the passing of time, no doubt the pain and hurt is still fresh in the minds and hearts of those who loved Kimberly. May you continue to endure with this thought in mind at 1Peter 1:6,7 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; While you throw all your anxiety upon him, because he cares for you. So no matter how difficult it may still be, continue to throw your burden on Jehovah.##imported-begin##D. Fish##imported-end##

“ I'm sorry to hear about your loss. I would like to express the Bible's hope for the future. At John 5:28,29, Jesus spoke about the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Yes, the Bible speaks about a resurrection of the dead. In fact, the Bible speaks about the time when "death will be no more." (Rev. 21:3,4) What a wonderful time that will be!!! “ What a sorrowful thing it is to lose someone we love in death. The bible can be a great source of comfort at such times, because it tells us of God's purpose to bring about a new world, which will be free of violence, sickness, and even death. All sources of pain will be eliminated. Rev.21,3,4 promises, "And he will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more." May Jehovah's promises comfort you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to the family of Kimberly T. Adamson for your loss. Death is an unnatural part of life and brings great sorrow with it. We long for our love ones to continue with us forever and that's natural. The Bible can bring us hope in this time of need because Act 24:15 says so very lovingly, "I have hope toward God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Those we do lose to that enemy Death Jehovah God promise that we will see them again in better condition here on earth. Isn't that a wonderful promise to look forward too? Jesus Christ also spoke of this promise in the book of John 5:28,29. As he was dying he spoke of the earth being a paradise and the hope of the resurrection to one of the evil doer's next to him. (Luke 23:42,43) Your love and your memories are not forgotten as Jehovah and Jesus promise will be fulfill. My Deepest Sympathy Shirel Halstead.##imported-begin##Shirel Halstead##imported-end##

“ God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##

“ I am truly sorry for the loss of Kimberly. I’m sure this must have been a difficult time for your family. I am leaving you with the following scriptural messages. The first scripture comes from Psalms 116:15...it reads as follows....Precious in the eyes of Jehovah is death of his loyal ones. Ecclesiastes 7:1...reads as follows...A name is better than good oil, and the day of death then the day of ones being born. Isaiah 25:8...It reads....He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself as spoken it. I sincerely hope that these scripture give you comfort.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ To the Family of Ms. Adamson, Please excepted my deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow. During a time like this we all need comfort and Jehovah is spoken of as the God of comfort. He always gives us what we need at the right time. The Bible says he is going to do away with the last enemy "death". (1Cor.15:26) So all those in his memory will have the opportunity to be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) So may you all look to that time when you will be able to enjoy the presents of Kimberly again right here on paradise earth.##imported-begin##Lillian Lewis##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Adamson Family. May you take comfort in knowing that other care. Death is our enemy as the bible say at 1 Cor.15:26. It is wonderful to know that the time is coming when no one will ever die again. Every day we lose some one in death. Comfort comes from our heavenly father as he promises to make all things new. (2Peter 3:13) The bible tells us why people die. I hope these few thoughts have been uplifting to you all . May the loving thoughts of Kimberly stay in hearts. My sincere condolences to you all.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
