

Kimberly C. Tunstall

January 16, 1963 - July 4, 2014

KIMBERLY C. TUNSTALL, known as “Kim”, daughter of the late Larry Russell Tunstall and Mary Tunstall McCoy was born January 16, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. Kim departed this life suddenly on July 4, 2014.

Kim received her education through the Baltimore City Public School System. She attended Southern High School. Kim loved working. She spent ten years at Broadway Services and then for Riverview Nursing Home.

At an early age, Kim accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Savior and was baptized by the late Rev. Franklin C. Blackmon of New Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church.

Kim loved life. She enjoyed cooking, music, and starting trouble. Everywhere she went Kim made a friend. At any point and time she was willing to lend a helping hand. Kim loved her family. She was a great mother, daughter, sister, aunt, and grandmother. Kim loved herself just as much as her family; if not more. You could often hear her saying “Don't hate me cuz I'm beautiful!” Yes, she was beautiful by her heart and smile.

Kim leaves to celebrate her life: son, Gerard Jett; daughter Kimberly Crystal Jett. Cherishing her memories are: mother, Mary Tunstall McCoy; father, Eugene McCoy; two sisters, Demetra Tunstall and Oterial Arrington; two brothers, Kevin (Deborah) Tunstall and Avar Tunstall; two grandsons, Gerard and Garell; one granddaughter, Angel; grandmother, Evelyn Barnes; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and a host of family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ We grew from childhood to womanhood together, learning our lifelong lessons through three neighborhoods. After a while life took us on different paths although we shared the same challenges, strengths and visions of raising our families , and living though life's challenges and trials. Kim was my friend. I will always remember her for the baby she was and the woman who showed bravery and courage as she traveled her journey as a dedicated mother, wife, daughter, sister and my friend. I often thought of you and your wellbeing, you Kim never left my heart. I love you Kim and I thank you for the opportunity you gave me for sharing your life with me.
