

Kimberly Williams

January 13, 1967 - June 27, 2004

Kimberly Sharon Williams, daughter of John and Catherine Williams, inherited the Kingdom of Heaven on June 27, 2004 at 3:55 p.m. after a lengthy battle with Breast Cancer. Kimberly entered God's Glorious Garden, while at home with her family. Kimberly was truly one God's Leading Ladies that with stood the test of time. She can be compared to one of God's key women as defined in the Bible, "The Infirm Woman" Mathew (9:20-22). Kimberly was a very ill young lady. Every part of her body was aching. Her pulse was weak. Her body, trembling, but she tried desperately to hide her pain. She was a woman whose illness had become so all-consuming that she preferred to be alone. Her medical problems were multiple and complex. With life's blood flowing out of her, she was almost out of time. While death was stalking her, leering over her shoulder, it was the "if" that kept her alive. "If I may but touch the hem of His garment." All she needed was relief from her terrible pain. She was not looking for approval from anyone but God. All she sought was a position on her knees to touch the hem of His garment. Kimberly's love and faith in the Lord was incredible. "I have never asked God why this had to happen to me, and I still love him more than anything," were her exact words to her family" And in response, to her continued faith, belief, and honor unto God, throughout her illness, His virtue came running down and delivered Kimberly. Kimberly was raised in a family with very strong faith and belief in God. Although she had accepted the Lord as her personal savior many years ago, on May 27, 2004 Kimberly committed her life to the Lord once again.

Kimberly was a faithful member of Bishop TD Jakes TV Ministry and looked forward to Watching Bishop Jakes every Sunday and Thursday night preach the word of God. Kimberly was educated in the Baltimore City public school system. She was employed at Harbor Inn Convalescent Center for several years and later joined the staff of Baltimore County School System. Kimberly was her birth name, however to many of her relatives and friends, she was known as Tweetie Bird. On December 16, 1986 God blessed Kimberly with a son, Colby who she absolutely adored. She was a loving caring mother who focused her attention solely on the welfare of her child. She enjoyed spending quality time with her son and one of her highlights was attending Colby's football games. Kimberly also enjoyed cooking, shopping, and spending time with her siblings and their families. God blessed Kimberly with a loving caring family. She leaves to delight in memories of her love: one loving son, Colby Williams; and one loving and caring adopted son, Aaron Lippman; her loving parents, John and Catherine Williams; her devoted sisters, Dana Williams; three brothers, Jonathan, Keith and Rodney Williams; three sister-in-laws, Cheryl, Channel and Alicia Williams; four nieces, Megan, Keyanna, Adrienne, and Jaia; five nephews, Ja-vaughn, Keith Jr., Rashad and Ryan; five aunts, Marie Jackson, Janice Williams, Shirley James, Rosa Price and Evelyn Price; four uncles, Thomas Price, Norman Williams, Matthew Williams and Elmer Jackson; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It may seem unfair that sickness, which may cause death, has the power to take away someone that we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. At Isaiah 33:24 states that " No resident will say I am sick..". Yes Almighty God, through his now reigning Son Jesus Christ will wipe "..sickness, death, pain and outcry..",will things of the past{Revelation 21: 3, 4). I pray that you rely on His many promises recorded in his word the Bible for strength to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures as I have been.##imported-begin##sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. No doubt the "sting of death" has left a great void in your life as it does so many. The bible gives us great hope at Isaiah 25:8,9 which says, :He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe all tears from all faces.##imported-begin##Denise Dukes##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
