Obituary

Kimmie Richardson Whitehead gained her heavenly wing on Friday, December 15, 2023, after a long battle with cancer. She was born September 4, 1959, to Lonnie Gene and Eloise Richardson, and was the older of two children.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Mt. Olivet Baptist Church. Later in life, she became a member of St. Paul Baptist Church. Kimmie was a devoted wife, and a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She was also a loving daughter, sister and friend. She was a 197 graduate of Highland Springs High School, and a 1989 graduate of the Mosely Flint School of Real Estate. She was head writer for The Good Spirits of the South Christian Comedy Ministry at St. Paul Baptist Church. She was also the owner and CEO of Native By Nature, LLC. Art was her passion. She loved to paint. She also loved to sing, and enjoyed spending time with family and friends, and going to the beach. Kimmie was proud member of the Haliwa Spononi Native American Tribe.

Kimmie leaves to cherish her memory a loving and devoted husband, Mark Whitehead, Sr.; two devoted sons, Chino Nadal (LaVonda) and Mark Whitehead, Jr. (Brittany); parents, Lonnie Gene and Eloise Richardson; Godmother, Bernice Burrell; one brother, Lonnie Richardson; six grandchildren, Damian, Chanti, Cory, Mateo, Ella and Camden; five great-grandchildren; two Goddaughters, Marshayla Bradby-Carlison (Brandon) and Kylisha Winston-Tyler (Wayne); three sisters-in-law, Brenda Cotman, Yvonne Bradby and Maureen Richardson; several nieces and nephews (two devoted, Paris and Courtney Richardson); and a host of other relatives and friends.

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me. I will be okay. Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay. Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong. I want you to be happy and try to stay strong. Don't cry for me. I was just my time, but I will see you someday on the other side. Don't cry for me. I am not alone. The angels are with me to welcome me home. Don't cry for me, for I have no fear. All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears. Don't cry for me. This not the end. I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again.

“ Kimmie was a vibrant, exuberant personality. She was honest and candied. Although I don't personally participate in Facebook, my daughter does and kept me up-to-date on Kimmie's posts. Through all of her struggles with her devastating illness, she was ever encouraging to others in the faith. To know her was to love her as she loved others. She will be missed immensely. But I am happy for her that her struggle & suffering has ceased. And that she has gone on to her reward, her loving creator that welcomed her with open, loving arms. R.I.P. Sweet Kimmie. We will always LOVE YOU! The Stuart Family, Walnetta, Kimberley, Dominik, Walter Jr. & Sylvia
