

King David Green III

May 19, 1981 - October 13, 2019

King David Green III, the beloved of Marie A. Davis and King D. Green Jr. was born on May 19, 1981 in Baltimore, Maryland. His life ended suddenly on October 13, 2019. He was born and raised in East Baltimore. King was affectionately called 'Man & Black' by his family and friends.

King was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools. He held many jobs throughout his life, of all the jobs and endeavors that Black held, his most rewarding and fulfilling job was being a father to his kids. King went above and beyond to ensure his kids were for straight. Black attended Southern Baptist Church regularly under the leadership of Bishop Donte L. Hickman, Sr.

King was a devoted, proud, and loving father, son, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend. King's family was the love of his life. Black had special friendships and countless friends who loved him very dearly. Black had an infectious laugh and smile with a big heart. He would light up any room he walked in. Black loved to attend family events, especially if his Grandma Odell was hosting. He was Grandma's baby boy and he used that to his advantage to get his way with her. Black and his cousins Darryl Wiggins (his brother) were inseparable. When you see one you would see the other. As his Grandma Odell would say 'Frick and Freck' or Mutt and Jeff.'

King leaves to cherish his fond memory, his loving mother, Marie A. Davis, father, King D. Green Jr. step-father, Charles Brown; step-mother, Cheryl Green; children, Tray'eon White Sr, Tai'Keya Green, Joelle Watts, Malaya Collins and King David Green IV, Labria Weaver and Jerome Smith; one grandson, Tray'eon White Jr.; two sisters, Lyneasha Davis and Vernetta Hamilton (Keith Washington); fiancée, Sharesma Carter; one niece, Kamora Washington; one nephew, Kamauri Washington, 7 aunts, Jeanette Singleton (Kevin), Laura Davis Hopkins (Andre'), Yvonne Green, Anita Green, Alethia Green-Hill, Telethia Green and Tiara Phillips; two uncles, Michael Green, and Tyrone Green; his cousins, A.
