

Kirk H. Butler, Jr.

May 29, 1970 - September 11, 2015

Kirk H. Butler, Jr. son of the Derotha Spinner and Kirk H. Butler, Sr. was born on May 29, 1970 He departed this life suddenly on September 11, 2015. He was preceded in death by his grandparents Derotha E. and Wilford Spinner. Hilda and John Butler

Kirk received his education through the Baltimore City Public Schools. He is a proud graduate of the Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School, class of 1989. Kirk went College of Baltimore on to attend the Community. Department of Parks and Recreation. He loved working with children at Easterwood Park Recreation Center.

At an early age Kirk was baptized at Ebenezer Baptist Church. Later in life he converted to Islam. He loved reading the Quran, and attending the Mashjid.

Kirk's only child, Delilah was the apple of his eye. He loved her tremendously and was proud to be her father. He traveled to Philadelphia to see her off to her junior prom and to celebrate her "Sweet 16".

Kirk, affectionately called "Sweetie" or "Ali" by family and `friends was a joy to be around and had a great sense humor. He loved his family and enjoyed spending quality time with them. He adored his nieces and nephews.

Kirk loved everyone and would let them know it , by always saying “ I love you”.Everyone was his “cousin” . Just like his grandmother and mother, he adopted laughter and jokes will be missed by all.

Kirk leaves to cherish his memory: his parents, Derotha Spinner, and Kirk H. Butler, Sr. one daughter Delijah; one brother Roderick (Buttons), sister-in-law Dorian; nieces DaiShon, Antenae, and DaiShane, one nephew, Darod: aunts Alice Brock, Constance Stevenson, and Arnetta Butler; God Sister, Brenda Baskerville (Chrissty) adopted grandmother Rosa Davis, a host of devoted God brothers: Jimmy Moore (BJ), Antoine Jones (Rabbit) Adrian Norris (Bo), (Troy Butch), the Anderson and Spinner families of Lynchburg, VA., and a host of other family, friends and all his adopted “cousins”.
