

Kirk Ryan Carico, Jr.

May 30, 1994 - January 30, 2016

January 30, 2016, God summoned Kirk Ryan Carico, Jr., to the pearly gates of heaven. The beloved son of DoRay Jones Carico and Kirk Ryan Carico, Sr., of Richmond, Virginia, was born May 30, 1994.

Kirk was a one-of-a kind young man – a gentle spirit with a glowing personality; heartfelt, yet full of humor. He was a faithful, hard-working father to his only son, Kingston. Spending time with Kingston was the most important to-do he put on his list every day. Kirk was a loyal, caring son, brother and friend. If he was not with Kingston, he enjoyed playing basketball, having fun with other family and friends, or working on old cars. The Atlanta Falcons was his favorite sports team, but he also was a huge collector of Jordan basketball shoes and had a massive collection, which he lovingly entrusted to his father. Kirk was also a Christian and his favorite Sunday to-do was fellowship at Faith Landmark Ministries with his grandmother, the late Barbara Jean Carico.

In May 2011, Kirk graduated from Varina High School. Due to his outstanding academic achievement and training at the Technical Center in Highland Springs he graduated a year early. After graduating, he continued his studies to become an electrician. He was excited about the bright future he could build as a master tradesman and was looking forward to a promising life. While learning his trade, he was employed by Discount Medical Supply as a warehouseman where he also pitched in as a truck driver whenever they needed him.

Kirk was preceded in death by his grandparents that helped raise him, George F. Carico and Barbara S. Carico. He leaves to cherish memories a beloved son, Kingston R. Akandé; caring parents, Kirk Ryan Carico, Sr. and DoRay J. Carico; sister, Keona Carico; half-sisters, Akira and Naima Diggs; half-brother, Raheem Diggs; grandmother, Doris Bailey (Maxwell); god-fathers, Reginald Jackson and Wilmer E. Davis; aunt, Tasha Carico; uncles, Michael and Brock Carico; devoted friend, Shelton Akandé; a host of other relatives and adoring friends.

“ Was randomly thinking about you just now. I started laughing remembering the first time we hung out and I didn't know I walked into a branch coming out of my house and you pulled the twig out my hair, and said I didn't know you was this natural. I miss your silliness and how happy you made me. I can't believe it's been 9 years and you're 30 now your birthday almost here and I just hope you're happy and smiling like always. Love you dude!

“ We weren't close or anything but Kirk was one of the nicest guys I've ever met. Anytime I saw him he was always smiling and laughing. The first time I met Kirk was in homeroom freshmen year at Varina. My name was right behind his. And every day after that we would call each other by last name whenever we saw each other. Kirk was like a ball of fun! Anytime I saw him he was always having a good time. He was so full of life! It's heart wrenching to know that someone that had such a beautiful soul that was so humble and amazing is no longer on this earth. Kirk, you will always be remembered! Rest easy angel..

“ I will never forget the day I proposed to my fiancé and posted it on Facebook everybody else was liking and commenting and Kirk sent me a text which read "Dog you are my hero lol I am happy for you and Brittney make sure you invite your boy to the wedding or you ain't riding with me to school no more lol" he was one of the two only friends that I could talk to and be coming to the end of a bad day and during that conversation I would forget what I was even mad at he looked out for me and never asked for anything in return he was a one in a million type of friend and will be truly missed

“ I wish to share my deepest condolences to the Carico Family. Words can't really describe the pain associated with losing a loved one in death. Even more so for such a young life. During this difficult time, please find comfort from the Scriptures. Isaiah 25:8 promises that very soon 'Jehovah God will swallow up death forever and wipes away our tears'
