

Kitich H. Deaver

August 26, 1929 - August 25, 2010

KITCH HORTENCE DEAVER, affectionately known as “kit” by her loved ones and friends, was born on August 26, 1929 in Sampson County, North Carolina to the late George Wilbert Lee and Elizabeth Boyette. She departed this life on August 25, 2010 at the Howard County General Hospital after a lengthy illness.

At a young age she met and married the late Ray Harvey Deaver, from this union came eight children. In 1969, Kitich relocated to Baltimore, Maryland and stayed there until she went home to be with our Heavenly Father.

Kitich was a passionate yet sassy lady who would do whatever she could to help anyone. She always opened her home to anyone who needed a comfy place to stay or a hot meal to eat. Her love and passion for her own family lead her to become a devoted foster mother for many years. Kitich was known for her extraordinary “southern” home cooking. The taste of her mouthwatering collard greens, yams, and corn bread (just to name a few) will forever linger in our mouths.

Kitich is survived by: her eight children, Joe Boyette, Charles Deaver, Mary Wynn, Shirley Kelly, Robert Deaver, Joel Deaver, Judy Deaver and Janice Deaver; two daughter-in-laws, Lamonta Deaver and Elizabeth Boyette; two sons-in-law, Carl Kelly and Kevin Spain; four sisters, Lizzie Cooley, Janice Harper, Helen Cooper and Lillie Carter: three brothers, James Lee, George Lee and Willie Cooper: twenty- three grandchildren, sixty great-grandchildren, nine great-great-grandchildren: a host of aunts, uncle, niece, nephews, cousins and friends.
