

Kivonte Laquan Sessoms

November 6, 1998 - March 2, 2017

Kivonte Laquan Sessoms born November 6, 1998, in Hanover, Virginia to Latisha Sessoms and Larry Bowman. He was a loving young man with a variety of talents with an immeasurable sense of humor. Kivonte 's mother will be honored this June with his Diploma, from Varina High School.

Growing up, Kivonte gained the nick name "Tow Truck" because he was unstoppable. At the age of five years old he started his journey as a football player with the Virginia Randolph Rams. Kivonte continued his passion for football with the Highland Springs Springers and a Varina Blue Devil. He also loved basketball and tea ball. Kivonte devoted most of his spare time to his love for music and enjoyed spending quality time with his younger brothers, who simply adored him.

Kivonte loved eating his mother's mac and cheese and putting hot sauce on everything he ate. It wouldn't be him, if he didn't sport his designer clothing with his gold slugs. As he would say "I'm ugly fa-real, its the slugs that get em every time" when referring to the ladies. He was loved and will be missed by many.

Kivonte leaves behind his loving mother Latisha Sessoms, father Larry Bowman, stepfather Shawn Smith, devoted grandmother Michele, grandfathers Willis, Walter Smith; four beloved siblings, Daykesha, Delonte, Jayden and Tachelle; a devoted Friend Hershai James, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family and friends.

Kivonte will always be remembered by his bright smile and joyful personality.
