

Kori Kiara Pinson

June 17, 1992 - November 30, 2008

Early Sunday morning, on November 30, 2008 before the dawn of a new day, KORI KIARA PINSON'S earthly life came to a quiet and peaceful end. Kori was born on June 19, 1992 to Kisha Phillips and Brian Pinson in Baltimore, Maryland. She was affectionately known as "Granny" to her Grandmother, whom she shared a special and unique relationship. Kori received her education at the William S. Baer School and the George McMechan Sr. High School. Kori loved bouncing to music and she had a smile that would light up the universe. She also was a fighter as she endured a lot over the course of her sixteen years with numerous surgeries and hospitalizations. Kori was quite the celebrity at Kennedy Krieger Institute and at the Johns Hopkins Hospital because she conquered various medical obstacles with amazing and miraculous results. Kori was celebrated by family and close friends each and every year with a themed birthday party. Kori's mother loved dressing her up and putting make up on her precious face. Kori's brother "Kristopher" and step father "Daddy Melvin" played a major role in her care, from playing special games to helping mom provide all the necessities required for her daily care, which at times were very difficult, but through it all, it was a labor of love and they never complained. Kori has touched so many lives in so many ways that she will forever live in our hearts. She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving and caring mother and step father, Kisa and Melvin Phillips; father, Brian Pinson; on faithful brother, Kristopher Stanley; on sister, Tamera Pinson; one step sister, Ashley Phillips; two adoring grandmothers, Deborah Holt and Ruth Gamble; one wonderful great grandmother, Mary Jackson (Willie Odell); two step grandfather, Gary Holt Sr. and Willie Gamble; one aunt, Mya Holt; two uncles, Keith Pinson Sr., Gary Holt Jr.; a loving great uncle, Ronald Lowery (Laverne); a very special cousin, Tiffany Lowery and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Just Call On Me by: Karl Fuchs I can't comprehend just how sad you must feel for the loss of someone you love. This sorrowful time must still feel unreal and you're looking for strength from above. I hope, from my heart, that your pain will decrease, that your spirit will gain strength again, and I pray that your faith will create inner peace and that God will send blessings--Amen. Till then, if you need me to lighten your load, I'm waiting to come to your aid. Just call on me, and I'll walk down that road, until the dark times start to fade. Deep condolences. Kisha and Family, As we spoke during Kori's time of illness I raised up many prayers but as always God has a greater plan that we can not understand. Be assured that Kori is at peace and resting in God's protective hands. Kori I know has her wings and such a beautiful pair! With much love and MANY prayers, Stephanie, Pearlette & Justin###imported-begin###Stephanie C Lansey###imported-end###

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 lovingly informs us that our "enemy death" will be "destroyed". In addition Acts 24:15 declares: "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My family and I offer our deepest sympathy to Kori's family and friends. As you reflect on her life and draw comfort from your precious memories, remember the One who is the source of life has given us a source of comfort doing times like these. The hope of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We can find comfort in this hope because Hebrews 6:18 tells us it is impossible for God to lie. Let him be your source of comfort.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
