

Kristen Kimberly Pinkney

July 5, 1981 - January 1, 2015

Kristen Kimberly Pinkney, daughter of Kim S. Pinkney and Norvell W. Pinkney, was born on July 5, 1981 at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, MD. She was baptized at St. Bernadine's Catholic Church and christened in the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Her father Wesley, is attributed to giving Kristen her lifelong nickname, "Fee-Fee". Kristen grew up in Baltimore County and West Baltimore. She was raised with love and attention from both sides of her family and made lifelong friends everywhere she went. As a young girl, Kristen showed empathy and tenderness to both people and animals, adopting a few strays along the way. This was the beginning of her love and desire to help others in any way she could.

Kristen attended Hilton Elementary School, Old Court Middle School and then went on to graduate high school from Harbor Heights in Baltimore, MD. Later, she obtained a Certificate for Medical Assistant from TESST College of Technology, which gave her the credentials to enter the profession she was well suited for--caretaker. Kristen was currently enrolled in Radians College in Washington, DC as an Associate Degree candidate in nursing.

It was apparent from a very young age that Kristen was never afraid of hard work. She worked in several areas including Federal Express, the Maryland

Transportation Administration and Prometrics. Over the past year she had been providing private nursing care for her grandmother, who is under hospice. Her undeniable devotion and love for her grandmother could fill a room and she will be greatly missed.

Kristen was a beautiful girl who was always smiling. She always encouraged others to do their best and would be the first to uplift your spirits if you were down. She loved to laugh, and was a loyal friend to those closest to her. Like many, Kristen faced personal struggles throughout her life, but she showed great resiliency in the face of her adversities never letting anything keep her down.

To Kristen, family was everything. In March of 1995, she welcomed the light of her life, Brianna. As a young mother she and Brianna were extremely close, more like sisters than mother and daughter. Kristen was a devoted mother to Brianna, always putting her first in her life, raising her to become the talented and confident young woman she is today.

In the summer of 2014 Kristen welcomed into the world her next love, Kayden. She was ecstatic to have a son for whom she could continue to mother and nurture. Kayden brought so much joy and happiness to her life. She took him everywhere, wanting to spend as much time with him as possible. Being a single mother was never easy but Kristen overcame many hurdles to provide for her family, with never ending love for her children.

Kristen leave to cherish her memory: her daughter, Brianna M. Smith and her son, Kayden K. Thompson; mother, Kim Pinkney and father, N. Wesley Pinkney; brother, Adam Pinkney; grandparents, Addison and Elaine Pinkney (paternal) and Cecelia Pinkney (maternal); and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and good friends. Kristen was preceded in death by her brother, Donald W. Pinkney, and will be laid to rest beside him at Woodlawn Memorial Cemetery in Woodlawn, MD.

“ I would like to send my condolent to the family of Kristen. When my sister-in-law (Faith) called and told me about the passing of her dear friend daughter. I had to send my deepest sympathy to her love ones. I hope you take comfort in knowing that God knows how you feel, and he is there to comfort you. In God Holy Bible at Isaiah 25:8 it tells us that, "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces." Numbers 23:19 say, "God is not a mere man who tells lies." Titus 1:2 and is based on a hope of the everlasting life that God, who cannot lie, promised long ago." So if God say he is going to wipe away the tears from all the faces and death will be no more, Then you know that this will come to be. For it is impossible for God to lie. Kristen does have a lovely smile.

“ Kristen your beautiful smile and your warm spirit will be missed by those that love you. Though we only went to elementary school together, I remember how sweet of a person you were and that you were always smiling showing off your dimples. I pray that God gives your family and loved ones the strength to carry on. I pray they find comfort in knowing that you're their angel now and your spirit will forever live in their heart. Rest in Paradise Kristen!
