

Kristopher M. Miller

March 27, 1982 - July 12, 2002

Kristopher Michael Miller was born in Baltimore, Maryland on March 27, 1982 to Patricia Ann Miller and Jerome Thomas. He was suddenly called home on July 12, 2002. "Kris", as he was fondly called by his family and friends received his education in the public schools of Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated from Mergenthaler Vocational Technical High School with honors in June 2000. After graduation, Kris went to work for Electrico, Inc. He was a hard, dedicated and excellent worker. His work spoke for him. Kris had completed two years of apprenticeship as an Electrical engineer at the Catonsville Community College. Kris was loved by everyone and kept everyone laughing. He loved to socialize and spend time with his family and friends. His favorite food was seafood. He leaves to cherish his loving memories; mother, Patricia Miller; father, Jerome Thomas; stepfather, Curtis Miller; two sisters, Jakarta Blakeney and Sharon Miller; grandmother, Eula M. Brown; three nieces, Jasmine Iler, Anesa Miller and Shian Salveson; ten aunts, three uncles, a life long friend Elander "champ" Forbes, a devoted friend, Tiara Gaines and a host of other relatives and friends. He will be sorely missed. I close my eyes and stepped on shore and found it was Heaven!! I took hold of a hand, and found it belonged to God, I breathed new air, and found it celestial air, I felt invigorated, I found immortality, I passed through many storms in my life, Then I found peace: When I opened my eyes, I was HOME. “ Yesterday was your birthday, you would have been 32. I miss you just as much as I did the day you left this world. I keep the memories close to my heart and every now and then I like to look at pictures and remember the good times we shared. You taught me a lot during our teenage years and after. I will be forever be grateful to you for your love and faith you had in me. I love you forever

“ Although you might find little solace in the why behind your sorrow. The one you love is gone from here, and this changes not tomorrow. If loss comes, too, with tragedy, its harder even still, to believe such pain was preference, much less anybody's will. God Bless You###imported-begin###The March Family and Staff###imported-end##

“ Kris! even though i only met you twice, you seem a very down to earth person. Even though the family is taking it very hard, you had your calling. We may not understand at the time, but God knew that your work was done here and he called you home. He has big plans for you in the afterlife. Everyone will miss you. It may seem a lifetime here but, in the house of our Lord, it only a blink of an eye. Heaven has definitely has a worthy angel. We all know you will make GOD proud...##imported-begin##Mark Barnes##imported-end##

“ Pat, Kris was very special to me. He was like my son as well. I remember spending nights talking to Kris on the phone for hours. We would laugh and I would give him advice and what he needed to do financially to survive. He would say "Miss Sandra, I ain't trying to hear that, after bills I have $2." What a fine young man you raised. I will truly miss him and my son, Jamaal but from now on like Jamaal use to say "Ma, I got this." Pat now "God's got this (them)." I will forever be there for you. My deepest sympathy to you and your family.##imported-begin##Sandra Robinson##imported-end##

“ Kris, I MISS U so much. It is so hard looking at your pictures and knowing I will not be physically seeing. I miss your laugh, just your presence. Sharon and I are becoming closer but we miss our little brother who thought he was our father. I will never forget the day or the hour I found out you were gone because it feels like yesterday. Kris, I know I never told you how much I cared and loved you but you were the apple of everyone's eye, you were my little brother and I was always going to be there for you. I know I do not come to your grave site much and it is not that I do not care but I just can not accept the fact that you are gone. I am still calling and your name. Champ, Shawn, Jiba and Darryl has been looking out for us but it just is not the same with out you. Kris I was and am so proud of you, I miss you like crazy. I could go on and on but I save some for later. Kris I really do not understand why you had to leave but it is something I have to accept. Just like they say, "You will miss me when I am gone," Kris, I miss you like there is no tommorow, I know there may be some typo's in here but I could not see through all the tears.
