LACONTIS Y. HOWARD, daughter of the late Necretia Lineberger and Patrick, was born on August 18, 1945 in Roanoke, Virginia. She departed this life on October 14, 2019. She received her education in Virginia public high school. At age sixteen, she continued her education in Job Corps Woodstock. That is where she found her passion for cooking. After she graduated from Job Corps, she had odd jobs. Later on, she became employed full time at Sheppard Pratt in Towson, Maryland as a cook, where she remained until her retirement. "Peaches" was full of life. She was an aunt, sister, best friend and therapist to us. She made an impact on a lot of people who were close to her. She loved football, and her favorite teams were the Steelers and Panthers. She also loved music, cooking food and she loved us. She made friends wherever she went at like her job, favorite cab driver and other people. "Peaches" leaves to mourn two sisters, Gia Lineberger and Bonita Fisher (her brother Joseph Lineberger preceded her in death). She also leaves her niece and nephews, Kandice, Taurean, Alex (the late Christopher Bey and Joseph Jr. and the late Ayana Lineberger ); great-nieces and nephews, Kayla, Christopher Flagg, Ayana Flagg, Trentin, Torian, Angelo and Jasmine: a host of relatives and friends.
