“ Please accept my sincere sympathy. Truly the pain associated with the death of a loved one can be so hard to come to terms with. May it comfort you to know that we have the hope of seeing our loved ones again, because Isaiah 25,8 promises that our God Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Then Acts 24:15 promises that there will be a ressurection, which the bible indicated will take place in the near future. May your precious memories be a source of comfort to you, and please read Rev 21,4 for stength, which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes; and death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away."###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy in your time of loss. Despite the pain, you may find comfort now in the Christian hope of the resurrection. Jesus promises at John 5:28,29a: "Do not marvel at this but the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." On the basis of Jesus' ransom sacrifice, we have a real hope of seeing our dead loved ones again.##imported-begin##A. Robinson##imported-end##
