

Lacy W. Sinclair

May 23, 1933 - October 6, 2013

LACY WILBUR SINCLAIR, the son of the late James Walter Sinclair and the late Beatrice McEachern, was born on May 23, 1933, in Lumber Bridge, North Carolina. He departed from this life on October 6, 2013. He was preceded in death by his step-mother, Gerdine Sinclair; first wife, Bessie Hamlin; two sisters, Gloria Roberson and Ulene Makell; three brothers, Carl Sinclair, Eddie Sinclair and Maxell Sinclair; two brothers - in - law, Ronald Johnson and Romus Makell.

Lacy received his education in the North Carolina school system. After completing his education, Lacy became the proud father of his first born child, Charles Rouse of Lumber Bridge, North Carolina. Around the year 1950, he moved to Baltimore where he met Bessie "Sugar Pie" Hamlin while working at Holtite Rubber Company. They were married and from this union three daughters were born: Yvette, Tonya and Cheryl.

Lacy honorably served his country as a member of the United States Army from 1955 to 1957.

In 1976, Lacy met Carolyn Bennett. Their commitment to each other grew, and in March 1982 they were married.

Lacy enjoyed watching all sports with a particular love for baseball.

He also enjoyed traveling and spending time with family and friends. A long standing pastime was playing the lottery often to select those winning numbers.

As an employee of Bethlehem Steel Company for twenty-three years (1967-1990), he worked tirelessly to provide for his family. He was an excellent father to his children as well as a supportive husband.

Lacy leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Carolyn Sinclair; son, Charles Rouse of Lumber Bridge, North Carolina; three daughters, Yvette Marshall, Tonya Dennis and Cheryl Wright; three sisters, Helen Johnson, Patricia Thornton and Charlene Sinclair; two sons-in-law, Randy Dennis and Jack Wright; brothers- and sisters-in-law, Gary Thornton, Frances Sinclair, Yvonne Dunlap, Loretta Dunlap, Brenda Dunlap, Janet Dunlap Toliver, Melvin Dunlap, Ronald Dunlap, Tyrone Dunlap, James Edwards; two stepdaughters, Tara Lane and Nashae Bennett. He is also survived by one grandson, four granddaughters, one great-grandson and one greatgranddaughter, a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He assures us in 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be done away with". Love, Linn

“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies its very painful. But the Bible talks about God doing away with pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort provide solace to your family at this time.

“ Dear Sinclair Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to all mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline: "When Death Is Swallowed Up Forever..." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states, "And he (God) Will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope For Dead Loved Ones"? I am not selling anything or conducting any business of any sort, not now or ever. I am just showing Neighborly love like what (Mark 12:31) mentions. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences and my the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear loved one. How comforting in knowing Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect our loved ones. Jesus himself said: "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." John 5:28,29

“ Please accept my deepest condolences on the death of your dear loved one. Our Heavenly Father never purposed death for mankind. He hates death and calls it an enemy. Very soon He will stop it once and for all. (1Corinthians 15:26; Isaiah 28:5)
Also, it can help us to remember, the Bible tells us encouragingly; "The living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing at all ..." (Ecclesiastes 9:5) I hope that you will take some encouragement in these promises found in the Bible. You can find many more encouraging Scriptures at www.jw.org.
