“ I extend my sincere sympathy to the family and friends of LaKeisha. I'm sure you all are feeling much sorrow, because the death of someone we love really hurts like nothing else. I know, because I too have lost many family members and friends over the years. What brings comfort to my heart is when I reflect on the wonderful promises Jehovah God has made in his word, the bible. For instance, 1st Cor 15:26 promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Then Isaiah 25,8 lets us know that Jehovah will swallow up death forever, and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." And one that really brings me much joy is found at Acts 24:15 written by the Apostle Paul which says: "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." So the righteous who have died, as well as those who didn't get a chance to really get to know and serve Jehovah will too have their opportunity to live again. What a loving father our God Jehovah is. May it warm your hearts as well to know that one day Lakeisha will open her eyes again, and if we are obedient to him and his righteous laws we will be able to be with our dead loved ones again. May these thoughts comfort you too in the days ahead.###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###

“ Hi ! Lawson's ! may I express my condolences to you all.I know that you all recent lost of Lakeisha hurts. The family circle has been broken. Death is not a friend of our. Our heavenly father is going to do something about is very soon. We can be sure that the time is coming when no one will ever die again as Rev.21:3-5 says all things will be made NEW. I look forward to that happening and you all too. May the comfort from the bible be uplifting and give you all great hope for the future. Sincerly, Lillian.###imported-begin###l.crosby###imported-end##

“ My heart goes out to the family. I did not get to meet LaKeisha but I heard wonderful things about her and how she never complained. I know from my daughter-in-law Toni Lawson Wyatt that Lakeisha was a very sweet person. Toni and my son Corey shared some times with her. Continue to look to the Hills for your help cometh from God. May God ever bless and keep you is my prayer I know your lost is great but joy will come in the morning Dorothy R.

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's Word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
