

Lakesha Walden

August 30, 1976 - September 21, 2003

Again, an angel has taken flight at the call of our Heavenly Father, from the distraction and weariness of time, to the peace of eternity. Today we salute that flight and join in the home going celebration of Ms. Lakesha Delshane Human (Walden). Lakesha, better known to her loved ones as Kesha, blessed her family with her birth on August 30, 1976. Her family knew at a very early age, how special she was going to be. Early in life she felt a strong need to help others. Because of that fact, Kesha became a Candy Stiper at Liberty Medical Center. If Kesha was not working for a specific company, you could always find her babysitting her little cousins or children of the family and of friends. A year after graduating from Northern High School in 1994, Kesha enlisted in the US Armed Forces. While Serving as an Automated Logistic Specialist in the Army, Kesha was able to travel to such places as South Carolina, Korea, Louisiana, Bosnia and finally to Kentucky. The attack on Kesha's health began in Kentucky where she elected to stay for most of her illness. After finally persuading her to come back to Baltimore, she continued to rely more heavily on her unwavering faith in God rather than on the knowledge of the medical profession. As such, she considered hospitalization to be an obvious demonstration of doubt, fear and disbelief. Knowing how strong her faith and belief in God was, her wishes were honored as much as possible and she was allowed to go on to be with Her Lord and Savior to a place where the wicked shall cease from troubling and the weary shall be at rest, and all the Saints (that includes Kesha) and the Angels shall sit at his feet and be blessed.

“ When God created Adam, he placed him in Paradise which is here on the earth. Since Jesus gave his life, John 3:16, we have the hope of living on that Paradise Earth that Adam lost through disobedience. Rev 21:1-5 speaks of no more sickness, death, sorrow. It is here on the earth where these conditions exist. That is why Jesus told us to pray that God's Will be done on the earth. it is here that death will be removed and we and our loved ones can live forever. Isaiah 26:19.##imported-begin##Leon Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I met Kesha in Louisiana at Interdenomination of Faith C.O.L.G. We were on the dance ministry and single's ministry together. Kesha would also on occasion babysit my 2 sons. To the family, I pray peace and comfort over you as you deal with the pain of your loss, but also with the healing in knowing that Kesha will suffer no more. Kesha prayed me through many things, gave me many things, including cookies that her mom used to send her from Maryland. Kesha also taught me many things. I often think of you Kesha and I miss you dearly. You will never be forgotten. See you in Heaven where we will dance, sing and rejoice in one spirit with the mind of Christ (Philippians 2:5) I love you! Shan###imported-begin###LASHANDRA MCCONNELL###imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Ms Walden appears to have led a short but accomplished life. I am certain that she is missed by family, friends and all who knew her. Death takes these precious ones from us. The Bible tells us that death is the enemy and we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Please accept my regrets. The Bible makes it clear that death was not a part of God's purpose for the human family. And although we never forget our dead loved ones, the Bible's promises help us to endure day by day. All traces of death, sickness, and old age will be permanently removed, and at that time we can say: "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?" (1 Corinthians 15:55) We anxiously look forward to that time.##imported-begin##Lockley##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The Bible can be a wonderful comfort to us all. Revelation 21: 3,4, Jehovah God says that he is going to wipe the tears from all of our eyes and death will be no more. May your family find comfort from this scripture.##imported-begin##Yolanda Johnson##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture as I have been many times.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I did not know Lakesha Walden but her viewing was the same day as my mother's. Her name was Jacqueline Johnson and she died on September 23, 2003. I looked in on her and I started to cry because I thought she was too young but she looked very pretty in her white dress. I just want to say god bless your family and Lakesha is in heaven with our lord and she is definetly in a better place. God Bless.##imported-begin##Z Johnson##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family of Lakesha Walden. Isaiah 25:8 rightly calls death "an enemy" that will be "swallowed up". Until that time comes please be comforted by another promise at John 5:28, 29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May this comforting promise bring you much solace during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
