

Lakesha Lynnette Cosby

February 3, 1978 - October 9, 2013

LAKESHSA COSBY, was born February 3, 1978 to her parents Francine Harris and Earl Simmons. Our father called her home on October 9, 2013.

Lakesha was born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland and raised with the love of her mother and grandmother, Dottie. As people got to know Keshsa, they would see her “sassy” personality. She would say anything to anybody at any given time. From childhood to adulthood, Keshsa loved to skate. She was a skating Fanatic and was very good at it! You could frequently find her at Shake and Bake skating rink showing off her skills. She also enjoyed going to the pool in the summertime. She and her three boys, Travis, Travell and Travon loved going to the pool and having fun.

Keshsa often invited her family over to her house especially at Thanksgiving, where they had fun and enjoyed one another. She also loved opening time with the daughters she never had, her nieces Tanesia and Taniya. One thing that excited Keshsa and made her happy, was the anticipation of her first granddaughter. Family brought her great joy, she worked hard over the years, with her last job being with the McCormick Spice Company.

Keshsa is preceded in death by her grandmother Dorothy Rawlings. She leaves behind three treasures: Travis, Travell and Travon; her mother Francine Harris; her father Earl Simmons; her dedicated sister and brother-in-law Chanelle and Ronald Johnson; her sister Erica Green; her aunts Renee, Kimberlee, Laura Lee and Dana; her uncles Terry, Kelvin and Anthony; her two two loving nieces Tanesia and Taniya; her best friend Lisa Livingston; and a host of other relatives and friends.
