“ My Beautiful fly girl angel! May you Rest in Peace! But i will always have the greatest memories over the years of our friendship (sisters as you would say) :). I will be at your burial site, for your final place of resting next to your mother to tell you my personal farewells. I was so blessed to have you in my life and I will miss you terribly! love you always, cheryl

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ Kesh was my homegirl and friend. She would always come to my desk to get a word from the Lord to uplift her at work and liked for me to sing. Kesh was very optimistic and believed in second chances. Though I will miss my friend she will always be loved. I pray for the strenth of her precious daughter, grandbaby, and family and leave you with these words.

Isiah 53:5

But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

Kesh is now healed in Jesus name, Amen!

Lakisha is now resting peacefully in the arms of God. She had such a loving spirit that will always be part of my memory of who she was. She will be missed by so many. May the peace of God be with the family and especially the daughter who was the center of her life.
