“ Honored Family Member

A light from our family is gone a voice we loved is stilled

A place is vacant in the home which never can be filled

We have to mourn the loss of one we would've love to keep

But God who surely loved him best has finally made him sleep

After a lifetime of his love and joy and music to fill our ears

God leaves these wondrous memories to help us through our tears

My nephew-in-law name was Lamar Booker, Sr. and he was loved dearly..

How do we let a love one go? How do we say 'I'm ready now to go on without you'?

How can we ever have a clue of what that really means?

All of a sudden the moment is upon us, and there's no turning back.

And then we know what grief is, and guilt and love and things undone.

Try to prepare and we will fail in some way, be it subtle or looming.

But there is peace too.

Peace and acceptance and overwhelming love that we maybe weren't aware of.

Waves and waves of conflicting emotion, and laughter too, and memories we hadn't bothered lately to recall come flooding back in shared company...

And it's all about you nephew-in-law

And there's gratitude... so much of that, that we had you, such a wonderful relationship

Bright and shining, nobody's fool, Independent, but humble too;

Smart, and kind, and fun. Adventurous...

A part of us has passed away, but much is carried everyday within us, and will as long as we are here.

This may be a final tribute,

A day to celebrate your life and say goodbyes;

But it's not final.

Everyday we'll celebrate in some way, just by the virtue of how you shaped our life, the absolute and incredible fortune that we knew you.

As a nephew-in-law, a friend and a man.
