

LaMarrien Lincoln

October 7, 1947 - December 30, 2015

LAMARRIEN LINCOLN was born on October 7, 1947, and spent her childhood in Baltimore, Maryland. LaMarrien, also known as “Shy,” passed away peacefully on December 29, 2015 after a lengthy illness.

LaMarrien was educated through the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated with honors from Frederick Douglas High school in 1965. She continued her education at Morgan State College and Baltimore City Community College where she majored in Business Administration. She was employed by Provident Comprehensive Neighborhood Health Center in 1974, where she was the principal clerk stenographer. Afterwards, she worked in the Mayor's office as senior clerk stenographer. She retired from the Baltimore City School system in 1993.

She met the late James Stanley Lincoln and they were married in 1970. From that union they had one son , James Kenneth, Lincoln, Sr. LaMarrien was preceded in death by her mother, Helen Singley and brother Larry Alvin Singley.

LaMarrien was known for her fashion style and could always be seen wearing some type of hat. LaMarrien was also known for her homemade cakes and love of board games. Scrabble was her favorite. She was ver active, she even taught her brother-in-law how play tennis. She occasionally attended services at Southern Baptist Church with her mother-in-law, Beulah Street. She enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, and they affectionately called her Gram.

LaMarrien leaves to cherish her memory: one son, James Kenneth Lincoln, Sr. (Garnetta Matthews Lincoln); six grandchildren, Patrice Lynnette Lincoln “Babycakes”, James Kenneth Lincoln, Jr., Garnetta LaMarrien Amanda Glory Lincoln, Isis LaMarrien Lincoln, Richard Ashar-Science Lincoln and James Samson Lincoln; one great-grandchild, Cameron Lincoln; one sister-in-law, Evelyn Muhlhan (Henry Muhlhan); one brother-in-law, Do Eric Lincoln, Sr. (Jennifer Hopkins-Lincoln); mother-in-law, Beulah Street; two nieces, Nichole and Ashley Singley; three nephews, Troy, Marlin and Marlo; and a host of other relatives and friends.
