“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Jesus said, "i am the ressurection and the life, whoever exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." John 11:25. My deepest sympathy to your family on the death of your loved one. Although at present, death is a sorrowful event we can't avoid, scriptures such as this one points to a happy future God has in store for obedient mankind. Jesus ressurected many while he was here on earth, and in the near future many more will have life restored back to them under Jehovah"s kingdom. That is when Rev 21:3,4 tells us that the tent of God will be with mankind, and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. May those comforting promises from God sustain you in the days ahead until that glorious day arrives.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. During this time of sorrow know that there is a remedy for death. It is the resurrection, a fundamental truth noted at Hebrews 6:2. God's word the Bible explains this remedy to us and provides us with comfort as we await the time when "the last enemy death...is... bought to nothing." 1 Corinthians 15:26. May you find comfort in the Bible as we await the fulfillment of this wonderful provision.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sorrow for the death of your loved one. Someone's death usually prompts many emotions. Please take to heart what the Bible says about the future of death. There will come a time when "Death will be no more".(Rev. 21:4) The Bible also speaks about the time when those who have fallen asleep in death will receive a resurrection. “ I wish to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your loved one. This tragedy is hard to deal with, especially with such a young person. A source of great comfort can be found in God's inspired word the bible. One such scripture is Isaiah 25:8,9 "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces."##imported-begin##K. “ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. It is truly heartbreaking to hear about the death of such a young person. The Bible is very comforting in this regard. It has a record of resurrections that actually took place. It helps us to see that this will happen again on this very earth. By that time God will remove all death, sickness, sorrow and pain. {Revelation 21:3-5} Luke 7:14, 15 says- "Jesus walked to the coffin and touched it. The men that were carrying the coffin stopped. Jesus said to the dead son, "Young man, I tell you, get up! Then the son sat up and began to talk. Jesus gave him to his mother." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think about this loving hope from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
