

Lamont D. Greene

February 24, 1982 - November 8, 2001

Sometime in the early morning of November 8, 2001 our heavenly Father sent down his angel to visit our beloved son, brother, father and friend, Lamont Damien Greene. In a twinkling of an eye, the chain that had bonded so many hearts was broken. Bit by bit, it comes over us that we shall never again hear his laughter, see his smile, or hold him close to our hearts. We are saddened, but we know that he is in a better place and we rejoice. Lamont Damien Greene was born on February 24, 1982 to Richard and Barbara Greene. He was a beautiful child and filled our hearts with joy. From early childhood Lamont loved to laugh and play jokes on his family and friends. One of his greatest desires was to play professional basketball and to be a coach for the Chicago Bulls. Lamont always enjoyed helping others when trouble came their way. Lamont attended public school and will be remembered by both teachers and students for his beautiful smile and mischievous ways. On April 9, 2000 a miracle happened in Lamont's life. A beautiful, happy little girl was born to Lamont and his companion Montrey Worrell. They named her Lashae Diamond Greene and she was the guide light in her father's life until his passing. Lamont leaves to cherish his memory: his parents, Richard and Barbara Greene, his sister, Arnetta Greene; his daughter, Lashae Greene; his niece Skytiera Greene; his grandparents, Anna and Walter James; two great aunts, Mattie Brooks and Mary Ruffin. Surviving Lamont are also nine aunts, Shirley Rogers, Pearlie Mc Coy, Mabel Robinson, Edna Lancaster, Frances Jones, Mary Daniels, Jacqueline Rose, Linda Greene, five uncles, John Greene, Warren Chase, Jr., Clarence Chase, Bruce Chase, Donald Milton and a host of relatives and friends.
