

Lance McLetchie

March 3, 1930 - December 26, 2002

Lance McLetchie, son of the late Arnold and Ethelena McLetchie, was born on March 3, 1930 in Trinidad and Tobago. He departed this life on December 26, 2002 after a short illness. He received his education at Osmond High School in Port-of-Spain. After successfully completing high school, he attended trade school where he became a qualified mechanic of cars as well as boats—well rounded when it came to knowledge of gasoline or any other type of powered engines. Lance McLetchie was a respectable and honest man, hard working and diligent in all his aspirations while here with us; a good father to his children whom he loved dearly. Lance was a good husband and loyal friend who would constantly go out of his way to help people he bonded with, and even strangers. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Wendy Eldica McLetchie; his sons, Daryl McLetchie, Wendell McLetchie, Ralph Alexander and Jessel Paul Alexander; his two daughters, Donna and Denise; his eleven grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends. He will be missed.
