

Lancelot S. Keating

May 22, 1939 - April 29, 2012

Lancelot St. Aubyn Keating known to us as “Roy,” was the son of the late Clifford Keating and Alma Keating. Roy was born on May 22, 1939 in Portland, Jamaica W.I.

Roy received his early education in Portland, Jamaica at the Bloomfield school. Upon his graduation he became a master carpenter and mason, and was very accomplished at his trade.

In 1970 he migrated to the United States. He set up residence in Brooklyn, NY and later on moved to Baltimore, MD where he met and married Sarah Mildred.

He always enjoyed being around his family and friends. Some of his favorite past times included going to races, and playing a good game of dominoes and cards. Roy was a very caring individual that loved to have fun.

After a lengthy illness, on Saturday April 29, 2012 at 10:30pm God called him home.

To mourn his loss and cherish his memory he leaves behind: his mother, Alma; his five sons, Robin, Donovan, Garfield, Dean and Dwight. He also leaves behind several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, six sisters, two brothers and several nieces, nephews and in-laws.

“ Saying goodbye is one of the hardest things I have ever done. I am going to miss you tremendously Uncle Roy. You were one of the greatest people that I have had the honor of knowing and loving. I feel so lucky to have so many memories of the times that we spent together. I will miss you always and forever. See you soon....

“ Much time we did not spend together. However, whenever I was in your midst you made me feel welcome; you made me feel as if we'd only seen each other the day before. I will always remember your broad smile accompanied with a sweet chuckle, your loving comments and your wit.

My dear Uncle, though hard for us to accept, you're gone to a better place. The Heavenly Father saw you in your misery caused by pain and decided to take you under his wings where pain you will suffer no more. So, Rest in Peace. I can imagine what Heaven will be like with you, "Mass Cliff" and my Uncle Loxley...say hello to them for me.

In loving memory of my Uncle Roy!

“ Not how did he die, but how did he live?
Not what did he gain, but what did he give?
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
Not, what was his church, nor what was his creed?
But had he befriended those really in need?
Was he ever ready, with word of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
But how many were sorry when he passed away.

In loving memory of Uncle Roy.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
