Landis Thweatt was born August 8, 1924. Our Father and Grandfather slipped away on June 20, 2005, to rest and now awaits the voice of the Life Giver. Landis was born to the late Joseph and Francis Thweatt in Petersburg, Virginia. He was the youngest male of eleven children. On May 8, 1950, Landis married Barbara L. Knight. Out of that union they had six children; Yale Thweatt, Joann Thweatt, Bryan Thweatt, Jon Thweatt, Jill Thweatt and Cassie Thweatt. During his journey in life, Landis worked at Domino Sugar Corporation in Baltimore for over forty years. He was a dedicated worker and enjoyed his profession. He often emphasized the importance of working, but most of all, the importance of being on time for everything and not being late for anything. He always had a cheery disposition and smile. He loved and cherished the life that the Lord blessed him with. He enjoyed being in the presence of family member and friends, and always tried to help someone to the best of his ability. He leaves to mourn their loss: his wife, Barbara Thweatt; three sons, Yale, Bryan and John Thweatt; three daughters, Joann Hicks, Jill Williams and Cassie Thweatt; eight grandchildren, Wendy Hicks, Monique Williams, Laura Hicks, Christopher Hicks, Juban Thweatt, Timothy Williams, Rudi Williams and Randi Williams; four great grandchildren, Philip Eldrige, Korey Garrett, Kobe Garrett, Morgan Hicks, and “ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
