

Lannie Hollis Williams

January 8, 1954 - January 29, 2023

Lannie Hollis Williams, 69, departed this life on Sunday, January 29, 2023. He is preceded in death by his mother, Emma k. Williams; father, Albert Williams; grandmother, Lizzie K. Woodson (Thomas); brothers, Alfred and Dennis Williams and Anson Bell; and granddaughter, Keniyah D. Jones.

Lannie was born January 8, 1954, in Richmond VA. He accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Cedar Street Baptist Church. He graduated from John Marshall High School in 1953. Thereafter, he enlisted in the United States Navy and served honorably until 1980. He began working for E.I DuPont and held several other jobs throughout his life. He also obtained his CDL license and was employed by Swift. Following, he enrolled in John Tyler Community College, where he received several certifications, including welding and HVAC. He also became a licensed contractor and most recently, Lannie obtained his Lead Abatement License through Commonwealth Workforce Alliance. Lannie was aswell educated man with many skills and talents.

He was an avid reader, a great conversationalist and an awesome grill master. Many would describe his style as a dapper debonair, as he always dressed to impress. He loved spending time with his family, traveling, cooking, fixing things around the home, and hanging out with his childhood friends. Lannie was truly dedicated to his family and friends. There isn't much you couldn't call him for. To the Williams family, he was the “glue” that held us together.

Lannie is survived by his loving daughter, Lydaisya Harrison (Will); sons, Ralph and Mathew Williams; grandchildren Blescyn Williams, Jovan and Hendrix Harrison; brothers, Larry Kelly and Gregory Williams (Sandra); sister, Joyce Kenney; devoted life partner, Wanda Dickerson; mother in love, Gladys Dickerson; aunt Mary Starks; god-children Tamara and Ramar James and Skylar Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and long-time friends, including Steve and Linwood Evans. He will truly be missed by all who came in contact with him.

“ Gone too soon. For the time I have known Lannie, he gave to those stranded on the highways, family, friends, and me, his time, much love, heart, labor, funds, big hugs and kisses, chef cooking, rides wherever needed, repairman, and so on. I know his children and grandkids were priority whom meant the world to him. He had a fashionable and unique way of dressing from his hat, down to his shoes. He was adventurous, a lover, loved to travel. Thank you for the good times, you are missed, loved, and never to be forgotten.
