

Larry Arntay Thompson

June 27, 1975 - June 11, 2006

LARRY ARNTAY THOMPSON affectionately known as Arntay Thompson, Lowo, L.T., Boog, L.Boogie, son of Larry Thompson and Charlene Alston was born on June 27, 1975 in Baltimore City. On Sunday June 11, 2006 he was called home to be with his Lord and Savior. Arntay was baptized at Holy Temple Apostolic Church. Arntay received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He grew up on East Preston Street in Baltimore City. He remained a fixture in East Baltimore until his departure. As a child Arntay enjoyed dancing and singing for his family. He often participated in school talent shows. As a teenager he had a passion for rapping and writing, Arntay was a member of the undiscovered rap group "Triple M Posse, where he was known as "Larry T.". As a child he spent a lot of time playing basketball at Collington Square Park. To let him tell it he was a "celebrity" as he starred as a basketball player on "The Wire". Arntay was deeply devoted to his mother. He also had a sincere fondness of his aunts. Arntay was charismatic, smooth, and a ladies man. He had a great sense of humor and would debate with the best. He was very handsome with a fashionable sense of style. One of his most common sayings was "I'm ma give it to them like this". Arntay leaves to cherish his memory: his loving mother, Charlene Alston; father, Larry Thompson; step-mother, Shermaine; two god-mothers, Debbie and Wanda; nine children, DeArntay, Shakeria, Anieyia, Diamond, Alexis, Larry Jr., Diara, TiShaun, and Lee Arntay; one grandfather, Jessie Alston; one grandmother, Thelma Thompson; four brothers, Larry, Henry, Allen, and Josh; two sisters, Melissa and Zelda; three god brothers, Eric, Turk and Black; two god-sisters, Tay and Shanelle; a special friend, Loastine and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, in-laws and friends.

*My brother forever
Man we got some stories of times we had together
You wasn't the biggest in the crew but you definitely had the most heart and you are one of my most intelligent friends*

“ *I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Thompson. May you find comfort in the words found at Revelation 21:3,4. Here God promises to do away with death forever. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore the former things have passed away".##imported-begin##K. “ I am writing to send my deepest condolences to the family of Larry Arntay Thompson. I did not know him personally yet I have experienced the lost of a loved one. In addition, I feel led to invite the survivors of Larry to my church: Set the Captives Free. My church holds a bi-monthly bereavement ministry called Life after Loss. It helped me a great deal and I pray that you allow for it to assist you in such a time as this. May God Bless you all...##imported-begin##Angie##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family. At times words of encouragement can help us during times of bereavement. At Acts 24:15 Almighty God Jehovah promise a "resurrection" of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Yes, please be comforted by the fact the Almighty God knows our pains and sufferings and gives us the hope of the resurrection. May this scripture give you all a measure of comfort.###imported-begin###V Adams###imported-end###

“ My deepest and most heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mr. Thompson for your loss. I can definitely feel your pain, because I too lost my only son 9 years ago at the age of 29. The pain for a mother who loses a child really cuts deep. What helps me to cope is my close relationship with Jehovah God. I know from my study of the bible that he has wonderful things in store for mankind. Death will not always be a painful cloud hanging over our heads, because he has promised to do away with this enemy, and restore life back to our loved ones. 1st Cor 15:26 says, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Also Isaiah 25:8 says that he will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." When he first created Adam and Eve, he put them in a beautiful garden paradise where they could have lived forever in peace and happiness, but now the earth is filled with violence and pain. Soon his original purpose will be fulfilled through the ransom sacrifice of his son, Jesus Christ. So if we are faithful and obedient to God's commands we will see our sons again. I hope these thoughts from his word comfort you as well as your precious memories. If you'd like to email me back, please feel free to do so, and I will gladly share some more wonderful scriptures with you concerning God's purposes.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I know it is very hard to lose someone especially someone so young.Psalm 68:20 assures us:"The true God is for us a God of saving acts; And to Jehovah the Sovereign Lord belong the ways out from death." May you receive much comfort and strength during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##sorry2 hear##imported-end##
