

Larry Conley

October 17, 1951 - March 17, 2002

Larry Lee Conley, son of George Conley and the late Sadie Conley, was born on October 17, 1951 in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on March 17, 2002. He completed his education at Douglas High School, and attended Lincoln Technical Institute, both in Baltimore. During the past ten years, Larry was employed as a Transmission Rebuilder at Glen Burnie Transmissions. He was well respected, dependable and a mentor to his co-workers. Larry married Brenda Adams in 1977. Together, they raised two girls, and he quickly became known as “Pop,” especially to his grandchildren. As a born again Christian, he and his wife displayed love, faithfulness, and were committed to keep good family values. Larry, well known to the McKean Avenue area as “Lee” or “Lee Lee”, never lost touch with his friends. He always called or visited someone in the neighborhood when he visited his dad. Larry loved his sport games, looked forward to visiting his family and getting Sunday dinner from his dad. Larry is survived by his wife, Brenda Conley; two daughters, Tamara D. Mickey and Andrea T. Melton; a son-in-law, Michael H. Melton; three grandchildren, Vicky Andrea Melton, Charles (C.J.) Maple, and Michael C. Melton; a mother-in-law, Mary J. Adams; his dad, George H. Conley; one brother, David Conley; two sisters, Maezelia Conley and Betty Sorrell; three sisters-in-law, Dana Conley, Scarlett T. Gales, Deborah Adams; one brother-in-law, Clinton Adams; and a numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ Miss Me-But Let Me Go When I come to the end of the road,And the sun has set me free I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me but not too long; And not with your head bowed low. Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me but let me go. For this is a journey we all must take, And each must go alone. Its all part of the master's plan,... A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart Go to the friends we know And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. MISS ME-BUT LET ME GO##imported-begin##Betty&Ledora Sorrell##imported-end##
