

Larry D. Johnson

March 17, 1954 - March 4, 2003

Larry Donnell “Don” Johnson, son of Hulin and Jesse Johnson, was born on March 17, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. In response to God’s urgent call, “Don” departed this life on March 4, 2003. Don received his education in the Baltimore City public schools and pursued certification as a draftsman. He spent the earlier part of his life drafting designs for submarines in the ports of New Jersey. Don expressed a special interest in law with an emphasis in the areas pertaining to disabilities. He had an exceptional dedication and devotion to his disabled son, Toye. Don leaves to mourn: his mother and father, Jessie and Hulin Johnson; his son, Toye; two sisters, Elizabeth and Jessie Fay; three brothers, Hulin Jr., James, and Maurice; two brothers-in-law, Ralph Robinson, Sr. and John Thompson; a host of nieces, nephews, and a great-niece; and a host of other relatives and friends.
