

Larry Dingle

June 1, 1948 - December 27, 2005

LARRY DINGLE JR., son of the late Larry Sr. and Wilhemina Watson Dingle, was born on June 1, 1948 in Manning, South Carolina. He was raised by Alice White, who loved him dearly. He departed this life on December 27, 2005 suddenly after a short illness. He received his education through the South Carolina Public School System. He went on to receive employment in various jobs while there. Later, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland. After moving to Baltimore, he gained employment at South Baltimore General Hospital. Later he became employed at Baltimore Asphalt/P. Flannigan and Sons, where he worked for twenty-seven years. After twenty-seven years of employment he was forced to retire due to his illness. He was a faithful worker and loved to kid and joke. He had a seriousness about him, and was friendly. He leaves to cherish his memory: a brother, Holly Watson of S.C.; five sisters, Beatrice (Casper) Simon of S.C., Betty Watson Rice of Florida, Josephine Watson of Florida, Viola Watson and Jessie Bell Snead of Baltimore, Maryland (siblings, King, Baby Romey and Elizabeth preceded him in death); three aunts, Ethel and Rovena Watson of S.C. and Ethel Powell of Buffalo, N.Y.; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, including special friend, Ida Adams of Baltimore, Maryland (Ida's children loved and cherished him as a father figure); a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and the P. Flannigan and Sons family.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
