“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Bro. Larry was not only my good friend, he was a child of God. Whether in the parking lot, at home, the hospital, or church, the conversation from Larry was consistent. "Trust in the Lord." He was an encouragement to me. Stay strong Sarah, Larry, and Nick. His life was too short; but he worked hard, Daddy taught you well, and now he's resting and talking with Jesus. May God continue to bless you.##imported-begin##Rev. Rick & Sis. Pat Payne##imported-end##

“ Our condolences to the family of Mr. Boisseau. Our family finds much comfort from the promises in the Holy Bible. One such promise is John 5:28,29- "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May this loving promise give you needed strength in the difficult days ahead.##imported-begin##Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hill##imported-end##

“ Sometimes it is hard for us to understand why somethings must be, for in his love and wisdom our father plans beyond all of our powers to see. There are many things that take place in this life that we may not understand, but I ask you to trust Jesus and be guided by his loving hand. Mrs. Boisseau I thank you for trusting the care of your husband to me. God will Bless you, and Heaven will continue to shine upon you.##imported-begin##Donald Knight, Mortician March West##imported-end##
