

Larry Edward Johnson

December 8, 1943 - November 14, 2002

Larry Edward Johnson, son of the late Leonard and Elizabeth Johnson, was born on December 8, 1943 in Trenton, New Jersey. He suddenly departed this life on November 14, 2002. He received his education in the public school system in Trenton. At the age of seventeen, he moved to Baltimore, Maryland and became employed with Mobay Chemical Company known today as Pemco Chemical Company. He was a very dedicated and loyal employee and worked for Pemco for over forty years. Larry often enjoyed taking trips to Atlantic City and walking along the Boardwalk. He also enjoyed going to dinner and spending quiet evenings at home listening to one of his favorite singers, Marvin Gaye. He especially enjoyed the Holiday Season where he would make his special EggNog for family and friends. He also loved to watch basketball, baseball and football in his leisure time. Larry made numerous friends wherever he went and greeted everyone with a warm and gentle smile. Everyone who knew him will sincerely miss him. He was always a true friend and devoted family man. He leaves to mourn: one son, Dawayne Johnson; a devoted friend, Marie Owens; four special godchildren, Ivory, Ashley, Daja and Janae; five close friends, Lisa Owens, Melissa Owens, Leslie Owens, James Johnson and Kenneth Hardy; and a host of other relatives, co-workers and friends
