“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Dailey. Death is a sad occasion and no one looks forward to it. Many wonder why we grow old, get sick, and die? Well, the Bible offers comfort in this regards. At Revelation 21:4 Almighty God promises that "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Yes, Almighty God promises a change for us and our dead love ones. May these loving provisions give you all a measure of comfort.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, My condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. Acts 24:15 tells about the hope of our loved ones being restored to life because it assures us- "there is going to be a resurrection". Through other scriptures we learn that there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain in that new world that God will bring about. (Revelation 21:4, Matthew 5:5 and Luke 23:43) May you receive much comfort and strength from this loving hope from the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My most heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mr. Dailey. Even though I didn't know him personally, I too have lost many loved ones, and I truly sympathise with your family. I know how painful death can be. It touches us so very deeply, and it truly crushes our hearts. Our only hope is in Jehovah, the God of tender mercies, who has the power over life and death. Through his son Christ Jesus, he purposes to end this scourge of sickness and death which has plagued us so very long, and restore life back to our loved ones, Jehovah in his infinite wisdom, remembers every detail of everyone who has died. The bible says he even numbers the hairs on our head. That's how much he loves and cares for us. So one day soon, according to Isaiah 25:8, he will swallow up death forever, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, because Jehovah himself has spoken it." May those thoughts from his word comfort you, and help you to cope.##imported-begin##R JohnaonrrR##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the family and friends. The Bible is a source of comfort and encouragement at such times. Acts 24:15 helps us to appreciate that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Jesus promises to resurecct all in his father's memory in the near future to live in peaceful conditions. May you find comfort and strength in Jesus' promises.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
