

Larry N. Kelly

August 25, 1948 - April 15, 2024

Obituary

Larry Neal Kelly also affectionately known as “Kelly” departed this life Monday, April 15, 2024, after a brief illness. He is preceded in death by his mother Emma Kay Williams and father William “Bill” Long, grandmother Lizzie K. Woodson (Thomas); brothers Alfred, Lannie, Dennis Williams and Anson Bell as well as his best friend George Smithers known as “Gee”.

Larry was born August 25, 1948, in Newnan Georgia and raised in Richmond, Virginia. He was educated through the Richmond Public School. He later joined the Armed Forces and retired from the CSX Railroad. Kelly was known for his great dancing moves and enjoyed a good meal with family and friends. His charismatic personality attracted many people to him and will be remembered for that infectious smile that could light up a room. Kelly also had an eye and love for fashion and nice cars.

Larry is survived by his loving daughter Yolanda Kelly-Reese (Robert), grandson NaQuan Trapp, a brother Gregory Williams (Sandra) and sister Joyce Kenney, also a aunt Mary Starks along with a host of nieces and nephews, cousins as well as other relatives and long time friends. Several of Kelly’s friends that will always remember him is Milton Cox, Steve and Linwood Evans, and several neighbors at the Armstrong Renaissance.

Kelly will truly be missed we love you. “Gone but Definitely Never Forgotten”.

There will be no goodbyes only until we see each other again.

“ How did I miss my childhood friend funeral. I just learned to that he had passed back in May. I just happen to see "Big Boy" Charles Plummer today and he told me that Kelly had passed. Boy, that was a blow since I had known him almost 70 years. RIP
