

Larry Don martin

January 26, 1948 - August 2, 2010

LARRY DON MARTIN, son of the late Luther and Nannie Martin. He was born on January 26, 1948. He departed his walk of this life on August 2, 2010.

He was raised in Baltimore, Maryland and received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He soon after enlisted in the United States Navy, where he served during the Vietnam era. He had a great respect for our country's military security. After his Honorable Discharge, he went on to the Military Reserves. Upon his return home, he worked for the Kenny-Cott Company and worked as an independent home improvement and rehab contractor, until illness defeated his ability to continue to work, but he insisted on using these skills on family and friends homes.

Larry, who was affectionately known to family and friends as "Brother" was a soft spoken, free-hearted person who truly loved his family. He always enjoyed an good TV show, good western, good food, family gatherings and the simplicities of life.

Brother leaves to cherish his memory: one daughter, Gwendolyn Odera; one son-in-law, Albert; from this union two grandchildren of Virginia Beach; two sisters, Sandra Tapp and Teresa Martin; one brother, Robert Martin; one brother-in-law, Oscar Tapp; a very special buddy and great-nephew, Jordan; he held a special bond with his nieces, Teir, Val, Chanique, Maxine, Monique, Marquetta, Chyanna and Toria; helpful nephews, Kevin, Timmy, Stephen, Mike and Dion; many other nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends; and a lifetime partner, Annette Workman.
