“ May knowing that others cares help to ease the pain in some small way. Lossing a dear loved one breaks the circle of life for all. Time is coming when dying will be a thing of the PAST, Isa. 25:8. May the God of tender mercies and comfort keep you all peacefull

“ May your hearts be comforted by the wonderful hope of the ressurection. When Jesus was here on earth he brought many back to life, including his friend Lazarus and a 12-year old little girl. The bible says her parents were beside themselves with joy at seeing their little girl alive again. Mark 5:38-43. One day, the bible says at John 5:28,29 that all those in the memorial tombs will again hear the voice of Jesus, and they will come out of those tombs." May the ressurection hope be a source of comfort to you, to help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy is extended to the friends and family of Mr. Wooden. Death is an enemy that can snatch our loved one at any time. However, the Bible offers comfort of a resurrection. We can have "hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous" (Acts 24:15). May you all find comfort in the Scriptures.##imported-begin##Brittany A##imported-end##
